COUNT I – INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 5,506,866

9. The allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs 1 through 8 are incorporated into this First Claim for Relief.

10. On April 9, 1996, U.S. Patent No. 5,506,866 Patent (“the ’866 Patent”), entitled “Side-Channel Communications in Simultaneous Voice and Data Transmission,” was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. A true and correct copy of the ’866 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

11. Wyncomm is the assignee and owner of the right, title and interest in and to the ’866 Patent, including the right to assert all causes of action arising under said patent and the right to any remedies for infringement of it.

12. Upon information and belief, the Defendants have and continue to directly infringe one or more claims of the ’866 Patent by making, using, selling, importing and/or providing and causing to be used products that transmit information utilizing WiFi, including information representative of analog data such as voice or sound and including control data, in which the information representative of analog data is converted to voice or sound, which by way of example include handsets such as the LG Thrill P925 and televisions such as the LG 32LM6200 (the “Accused Instrumentalities”).

13. Defendants were made aware of the ’866 Patent and its infringement thereof at least as early as its receipt of correspondence from Wyncomm providing notice of the ’866 patent and Defendant’s infringement thereof sent to LG Corporation on January 28, 2013 and to LG Electronics U.S.A., Inc. on January 29, 2013. These letters were sent by certified mail with return receipt requested. Wyncomm has since received the return receipt for at least LG Electronics U.S.A., indicating that Defendants, as related companies, each have notice of the ’866 Patent and their infringement.

14. Upon information and belief, since at least the time they received notice, Defendants have induced and continue to induce others to infringe at least one claim of the '866 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by, among other things, and with specific intent or willful blindness, actively aiding and abetting others to infringe, including but not limited to Defendants' partners and customers, whose use of the Accused Instrumentalities constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the '866 Patent.

15. In particular, Defendants' actions that aid and abet others such as their partners and customers to infringe include advertising and distributing the Accused Instrumentalities and providing instruction materials, training, and services regarding the Accused Instrumentalities. On information and belief, Defendants have engaged in such actions with specific intent to cause infringement or with willful blindness to the resulting infringement because Defendants have had actual knowledge of the '866 Patent and that their acts were inducing their customers to infringe the '866 Patent since at least the date Defendants received notice that such activities infringed the '866 Patent.

16. Despite Wyncomm's notice regarding the '866 Patent, Defendants have continued to infringe the '866 Patent. On information and belief, Defendants' infringement has been and continues to be willful.

17. Wyncomm has been harmed by Defendants' infringing activities.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Wyncomm demands a trial by jury on all issues triable as such.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Wyncomm demands judgment for itself and against Defendants as follows:

- A. An adjudication that Defendants have infringed the '866 Patent;
- B. An award of damages to be paid by Defendants adequate to compensate Wyncomm for their past infringement of the '866 Patent, and any continuing or future infringement through the date such judgment is entered, including interest, costs, expenses and an accounting of all infringing acts including, but not limited to, those acts not presented at trial;
- C. A declaration that this case is exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285, and an award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- D. An award to Wyncomm of such further relief at law or in equity as the Court deems just and proper.
