COUNT I

(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,454,212)

8. ADAPTIX is the owner by assignment of United States patent number 7,454,212, entitled "OFDMA WITH ADAPTIVE SUBCARRIER-CLUSTER CONFIGURATION AND SELECTIVE LOADING" ("the '212 patent") with ownership of all substantial rights in the '212 patent, including the right to exclude others and to sue and recover damages for the past and future infringement thereof. A true and correct copy of the '212 patent is attached as Exhibit A.

9. On information and belief, Pantech is directly and/or indirectly infringing at least one claim of the '212 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas and the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices including without limitation the Pantech Breakout smartphone sold to Verizon which, at a minimum, directly infringes the '212 patent. Pantech is thereby liable for infringement of the '212 patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. Pantech's infringement has caused damage to ADAPTIX, which infringement and damage to ADAPTIX will continue unless and until Pantech is enjoined.

10. On information and belief, Verizon is directly and/or indirectly infringing at least one claim of the '212 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas and the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices including without limitation the Pantech Breakout smartphone which, at a minimum, directly infringes the '212 patent. Verizon's infringement has caused damage to ADAPTIX, which infringement and damage will continue unless and until Verizon is enjoined.

11. Defendants directly contribute and induce infringement through supplying infringing systems and components such as the Pantech Breakout smartphone to customers. Defendants' customers who purchase systems and components thereof and operate such systems and components thereof in accordance with defendants' instructions directly infringe one or more claims of the '212 patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271.

12. The infringement of the '212 patent by each defendant has caused irreparable injury to ADAPTIX for which remedies at law are inadequate. Considering the balance of the hardships between the parties, a remedy in equity such as a permanent injunction is warranted, and such a remedy would be in the public interest.

COUNT II
(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,947,748)

13. ADAPTIX is the owner by assignment of United States patent number 6,947,748 entitled “OFDMA WITH ADAPTIVE SUBCARRIER-CLUSTER CONFIGURATION AND SELECTIVE LOADING” (“the ‘748 patent”) with ownership of all substantial rights in the ‘748 patent, including the right to exclude others and to sue and recover damages for the past and future infringement thereof. Verizon is thereby liable for infringement of the ‘748 patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. Verizon’s infringement has caused damage to ADAPTIX, which infringement and damage will continue unless and until Verizon is enjoined.

16. Defendants directly contribute and induce infringement through supplying infringing systems and components such as the Pantech Breakout smartphone to customers. Defendants' customers who purchase systems and components thereof and operate such systems and components thereof in accordance with defendants' instructions directly infringe one or more claims of the '748 patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271.

17. The infringement of the '748 patent by each defendant has caused irreparable injury to ADAPTIX for which remedies at law are inadequate. Considering the balance of the hardships between the parties, a remedy in equity such as a permanent injunction is warranted, and such a remedy would be in the public interest.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Wherefore, ADAPTIX respectfully requests that this Court enter:

A. Judgment in favor of ADAPTIX that each defendant has infringed the '212 and '748 patents, directly and indirectly, as aforesaid;

B. A permanent injunction enjoining each defendant, its officers, directors, agents, servants, affiliates, employees, divisions, branches, subsidiaries, parents and all others acting in active concert or privity therewith from direct and/or indirect infringement of the '212 and '748 patents pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283;
