5. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(c) and 1400(b). On information and belief, Defendant has transacted business in this district, and has committed acts of patent infringement in this district.

COUNT I

INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,037,936

7. Geovector is the owner of United States Patent No. 6,037,936 ("the '936 Patent") entitled "Computer Vision System with a Graphic User Interface and Remote Camera Control." The '936 Patent issued on March 14, 2000. A true and correct copy of the '936 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

8. Arczar is the exclusive licensee of the '936 and possesses all rights of recovery under the '936 patent, including the right to sue for infringement and recover past damages.

9. Upon information and belief, ZipRealty has been and now is infringing the '936 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States, by, among other things, making, using, providing, offering to sell, and/or selling (directly or through intermediaries) the ZipRealty real estate mobile, which addresses a scene with a computer vision system, forms an image of the scene, generates a graphical user interface, combines the image of the scene with the graphical user interface to form a composite image, and displays the composite image in a display field. ZipRealty is directly infringing, literally infringing, and/or infringing the '936 Patent under the doctrine of equivalents. ZipRealty is thus liable for infringement of the '936 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

10. To the extent that facts learned in discovery show that Defendant's infringement of the '936 Patent is, or has been willful, Plaintiffs reserve the right to request such a finding at the time of trial.

11. As a result of Defendant's infringement of the '936 Patent, Plaintiffs have suffered monetary damages and are entitled to a money judgment in an amount adequate to compensate for Defendant's infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by Defendant, together with interest and costs as fixed by the court.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs respectfully request that this Court enter:

1. A judgment in favor of Plaintiffs that ZipRealty infringed the '936 Patent;

2. A judgment and order requiring ZipRealty pay to Plaintiffs their damages, costs, expenses, and prejudgment and post-judgment interest for ZipRealty's infringement of the '936 Patent as provided under 35 U.S.C. § 284;

3. A judgment and order finding that this is an exceptional case within the meaning of 35 U.S.C. § 285 and awarding to Plaintiffs their reasonable attorneys' fees; and

4. Any and all other relief, at law or equity, to which Plaintiffs may show themselves to be entitled.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Plaintiffs, under Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, requests a trial by jury of any issues so triable by right.

DATED February 3, 2013.

Respectfully submitted,
