FACTUAL BACKGROUND

11. Beginning on or about June of 2013 Defendant began contacting Plaintiff's customers, business partners and potential customers, including Commerce Casino and began interfering with Plaintiff's current and prospective contractual and business relationships by making allegations that Plaintiff is infringing Defendant's Patents.

12. In a meeting on or about June 20, 2013, Plaintiff and its counsel were advised by representatives of Plaintiff's customer Commerce Casino that Defendant asserted to Commerce Casino that Plaintiff's LT Game Live Multi-Table System infringed Defendant's Patents.

13. At the time of making its allegations of infringement, Defendant was fully aware of Plaintiff's current and prospective contractual and business relationships with Plaintiffs' customers, business partners and potential customers, including Commerce Casino, when it interfered with these relationships and made these allegations of infringement.

14. Defendant intentionally interfered with Plaintiff's current and prospective contractual and business relationships with the intent to induce breach of current contractual and/or business relationships and/or prevent formation of prospective contractual and/or business relationships by representing to them, inter alia, that Plaintiff engaged in unlawful activities that violate Defendant's rights and business with the Plaintiff may result in legal action against them and subject them to liability and damages.

15. Defendant's aforesaid interference has undermined and/or will likely undermine Plaintiff's current contractual and/or business relationships and/or prevented formation of prospective contractual and/or business relationships.

16. Plaintiff has suffered and continues to suffer substantial damages and irreparable harm as a result of Defendant's unlawful actions.

COUNT 1 - DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF NON-INFRINGEMENT

17. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

18. Plaintiff does not practice any of the claims of Defendant's Patents and accordingly do not infringe directly or indirectly any of the claims of Defendant's Patents.

19. As a result of the acts described in the foregoing paragraphs, there exists a substantial controversy of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the issuance of a declaratory judgment.

20. A judicial declaration is necessary and appropriate so that Plaintiffs may ascertain its rights regarding Defendant's Patents.

COUNT 2 - DECLARATORY JUDGMENT OF INVALIDITY

21. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

22. Upon information and belief, Defendant's Patents are invalid for failure to meet the conditions of patentability and/or otherwise comply with one or more of 35 U.S.C. §§ 100 et seq., 101, 102, 103, and/or 112.

23. As a result of the acts described in the foregoing paragraphs, there exists a substantial controversy of sufficient immediacy and reality to warrant the issuance of a declaratory judgment.

24. A judicial declaration is necessary and appropriate so that Plaintiffs may ascertain its rights regarding Defendant's Patents.

COUNT 3 - TORTIOUS INTERFERENCE WITH CURRENT AND PROSPECTIVE CONTRACTUAL AND BUSINESS RELATIONSHIPS

25. Plaintiff repeats and realleges each and every allegation set forth in the preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

26. Defendant's aforesaid actions constitute tortious interference with Plaintiff's current and prospective business and contractual relationships.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for a judgment against Defendant, as follows:

(a) A declaration that Plaintiff has not infringed, either directly or indirectly, any valid and enforceable claim of Defendant's Patents;

(b) A declaration that the claims of Defendant's Patents are invalid;

(c) A declaration that Defendant's Patents are unenforceable;

(d) An order declaring that Plaintiff is the prevailing party and that this is an exceptional case, awarding Plaintiff its costs, expenses, disbursements and reasonable attorneys fees under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and all other applicable statutes, rules and common law;

(e) Such other and other relief as this Court may deem just and proper;

(f) An order for Damages resulting from the loss of current and prospective economic value and opportunity due to Defendant's tortious interference with Plaintiff's current and prospective contractual and business relationships;

(g) A preliminary and permanent injunction, enjoining Defendant from interfering with Plaintiffs' current and prospective business and contractual relationships.
