COUNT I – INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 5,506,866

9. The allegations set forth in the foregoing paragraphs 1 through 8 are incorporated into this First Claim for Relief.

10. On April 9, 1996, U.S. Patent No. 5,506,866 Patent (“the ’866 Patent”), entitled “Side-Channel Communications in Simultaneous Voice and Data Transmission,” was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. A true and correct copy of the ’866 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

11. Wyncomm is the assignee and owner of the right, title and interest in and to the ’866 Patent, including the right to assert all causes of action arising under said patent and the right to any remedies for infringement of it.

12. Upon information and belief, the Defendant has and continues to directly infringe one or more claims of the ’866 Patent by making, using, selling, importing and/or providing and causing to be used products that transmit information utilizing WiFi, including information representative of analog data such as voice or sound and including control data, in which the information representative of analog data is converted to voice or sound, which by way of example include smartphones such as the Galaxy S II Android, tablets such as the Galaxy Tab III 10.1, and televisions such as the UN32EH5300 (the “Accused Instrumentalities”).

13. The Defendant was made aware of the ’866 Patent and its infringement thereof at least as early as its receipt of correspondence from Wyncomm providing notice of the ’866 patent and Defendant’s infringement thereof, sent to Samsung on January 28, 2013. This letter was sent by certified mail with return receipt requested.

14. Upon information and belief, since at least the time they received notice, the Defendant has induced and continues to induce others to infringe at least one claim of the ’866 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by, among other things, and with specific intent or willful blindness, actively aiding and abetting others to infringe, including but not limited to Defendant’s partners and customers, whose use of the Accused Instrumentalities constitutes direct infringement of at least one claim of the ’866 Patent.

15. In particular, Defendant’s actions that aid and abet others such as its partners and customers to infringe include advertising and distributing the Accused Instrumentalities and providing instruction materials, training, and services regarding the Accused Instrumentalities. On information and belief, the Defendant has engaged in such actions with specific intent to cause infringement or with willful blindness to the resulting infringement because the Defendant had actual knowledge of the ’866 Patent and that its acts were inducing their customers to infringe the ’866 Patent since at least the date the Defendant received notice that such activities infringed the ’866 Patent.

16. Despite Wyncomm's notice regarding the '866 Patent, Defendant has continued to infringe the '866 Patent. On information and belief, Defendant's infringement has been and continues to be willful.

17. Wyncomm has been harmed by Defendant's infringing activities.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Wyncomm demands a trial by jury on all issues triable as such.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Wyncomm demands judgment for itself and against Defendant as follows:

- A. An adjudication that Defendant has infringed the '866 Patent;
- B. An award of damages to be paid by Defendant adequate to compensate Wyncomm for their past infringement of the '866 Patent, and any continuing or future infringement through the date such judgment is entered, including interest, costs, expenses and an accounting of all infringing acts including, but not limited to, those acts not presented at trial;
- C. A declaration that this case is exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285, and an award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees; and
- D. An award to Wyncomm of such further relief at law or in equity as the Court deems just and proper.
