COUNT I
INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,065,046

6. Plaintiff is the owner by assignment of United States Patent No. 6,065,046 ("the '046 Patent") titled "Computerized System and Associated Method of Optimally Controlled Storage and Transfer of Computer Programs on a Computer Network." The '046 Patent issued on May 16, 2000. A true and correct copy of the '046 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendant directly or through intermediaries has been and is now infringing the '046 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States, by, making, using, providing, supplying, distributing, selling, and/or offering for sale products and/or systems (including at least its Adobe Flex, Adobe Creative Suite, and Adobe Creative Cloud products) that practice the methods of optimally controlling storage and transfer of computer programs between computers on a network to facilitate interactive program usage, storing an applications program in a nonvolatile memory of a first computer, said applications program being stored as a plurality of interacting individual and independent machine-executable code modules, in response to a request from a second computer transmitted over a network link, retrieving a selected one of said machine-executable code modules and only said selected one of said machine-executable code modules from said memory, and transmitting said selected one of said machine-executable code modules over said network link to said second computer as covered by one or more claims of the '046 Patent. Defendant is directly infringing, literally infringing, and/or infringing the '046 Patent under the doctrine of equivalents. Defendant is thus liable for infringement of the '046 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

8. On information and belief, to the extent any marking was required by 35 U.S.C. §287, all predecessors in interest to the '046 Patent complied with any such requirements.

9. As a result of Defendant's infringement of the '046 Patent, Plaintiff has suffered monetary damages and is entitled to a money judgment in an amount adequate to compensate for Defendant's infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by Defendant, together with interest and costs as fixed by the court, and Plaintiff will continue to suffer damages in the future unless Defendant's infringing activities are enjoined by this Court.

10. Unless a permanent injunction is issued enjoining Defendant and its agents, servants, employees, representatives, affiliates, and all others acting on in active concert therewith from infringing the '046 Patent, Plaintiff will be greatly and irreparably harmed.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter:

1. A judgment in favor of Plaintiff that Defendant has infringed the '046 Patent;
2. A permanent injunction enjoining Defendant and its officers, directors, agents servants, affiliates, employees, divisions, branches, subsidiaries, parents, and all others acting in active concert therewith from infringement, inducing the infringement of, or contributing to the infringement of the '046 Patent, or such other equitable relief the Court determines is warranted;
3. A judgment and order requiring Defendant pay to Plaintiff its damages, costs, expenses, and prejudgment and post-judgment interest for Defendant's infringement of the '660 Patent as provided under 35 U.S.C. § 284, and an accounting of ongoing post-judgment infringement; and
4. Any and all other relief, at law or equity, to which Plaintiff may show itself to be entitled.
