and 1338(a).

6. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) and 1400(b). On information and belief, Defendants are Delaware corporations and have transacted business in this district.

7. On information and belief, Defendants are subject to this Court's specific and general personal jurisdiction pursuant to due process and/or the Delaware Long Arm Statute, due at least to their incorporation in and substantial business in this forum, directly or through intermediaries, including regularly doing or soliciting business, engaging in other persistent courses of conduct, and/or deriving substantial revenue from goods and services provided to individuals in this Judicial District.

COUNT I
INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,792,373

8. Plaintiff In-Depth is the owner by assignment of United States Patent No. 6,792,373 ("the '373 patent") entitled "Method and Apparatus For Semiconductor Testing" – including all rights to recover for past and future acts of infringement. The '373 patent was duly and legally issued on September 14, 2004. A true and correct copy of the '373 patent is attached as Exhibit A.

9. On information and belief, Defendants have been and are directly infringing the '373 patent. Defendants' direct infringements include, without limitation, making, using, and/or offering for sale infringing semiconductor test systems and/or practicing infringing methods and/or selling infringing products made using the patented process of the '373 patent, within the United States, including at least testers, products, and methods associated with its Maverick Lot program. Defendants are thus liable for infringement of the '373 patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) and (g).

10. Defendants have profited through the infringement of the '373 patent. As a result of Defendants' unlawful infringement of the '373 patent, plaintiff has suffered and will continue to suffer damage. Plaintiff is entitled to recover damages from Defendants that are adequate to compensate it for the infringement under 35 U.S.C. § 284, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff requests that this Court enter:

A. A judgment in favor of plaintiff that Defendants have directly infringed the '373 patent;

C. A judgment and order that this case is exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and requiring Defendants to pay plaintiff's reasonable attorney fees

D. Any and all other relief to which the Court may deem plaintiff is entitled.
