COUNT I
DIRECT PATENT INFRINGEMENT

13. Plaintiff hereby incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 12 set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

14. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), SHOE has directly infringed claims of the ‘7,030,781, 6,975,998, 7,400,970 and 6,904,359 patents through, among other activities, products, programs, applications, functions, systems and methods, the use of tracking and notification technologies within its “ADVANCE SHIP NOTICE” (“This email address is primarily used to send you automated information about your order including an order confirmation email with your order number...” www.shoee.com) and “SHIPPING CONFIRMATION EMAIL” (“...and shipment confirmation email with your tracking number...for order status and tracking information updates log onto My Account at shoee.com” www.shoee.com) services that are protected within the 7,030,781, 6,975,998, 7,400,970 and 6,904,359 patents, as every claim limitation, or its equivalent, is found in these functions, applications, solutions, devices, programs, products, services, methods and/or systems.

15. Furthermore, Plaintiff would argue that a means plus function claim is present. By way of example, claim 10 of the 998' Patent, "a system for reporting impending vehicle deliveries, comprising: means for receiving a plurality of packages; means for assigning each of said packages to a vehicle; means for determining an order that said vehicle is to deliver said packages; means for determining, based on said order, a first time period that said vehicle is expected to deliver one of said packages to a recipient; means for causing a notification message to be transmitted to said recipient, said notification message indicating said first time period; means for simultaneously transporting each of said packages via said vehicle; and means for transporting said one package to a premises of said recipient via said vehicle."

16. SHOE'S direct infringement has injured and will continue to injure Plaintiff unless and until a monetary judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiff and/or the Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement and, specifically, enjoining further use of methods and systems that come within the scope of the 7,030,781, 6,975,998, 7,400,970 and 6,904,359 patents.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court to enter judgment against SHOE and its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, servants, employees and all persons in active concert or participation with SHOE, granting the following relief:

A. An award of damages against SHOE adequate to compensate Plaintiff for the infringement that has occurred with respect to SHOE, together with prejudgment interest from the date that SHOE'S infringement of the patents at issue began;

B. Increased damages as permitted pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;

C. A finding that this case is exceptional and award to Plaintiff its attorney's fees and costs as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 285;

D. A permanent injunction against SHOE prohibiting further infringement of the patents at issue; and,

E. All other relief as the Court or a jury may deem proper and just in this instance.

COUNT II
INDIRECT PATENT INFRINGEMENT

17. Plaintiff hereby incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 12 set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

18. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(b) and (c), SHOE has indirectly infringed claims of the 7,030,781, 6,975,998, 7,400,970 and 6,904,359 patents through, among other activities, products, programs, applications, functions, systems and methods, the use of tracking and notification technologies within its “ADVANCE SHIP NOTICE” (“This email address is primarily used to send you automated information about your order including an order confirmation email with your order number...” www.shoeezoo.com) and “SHIPPING CONFIRMATION EMAIL” (“...and shipment confirmation email with your tracking number...for order status and tracking information updates log onto My Account at shoeezoo.com” www.shoeezoo.com) services that are protected within the 7,030,781, 6,975,998, 7,400,970 and 6,904,359 patents, as SHOE actively and intentionally induced infringement with knowledge that the induced acts constituted infringement, or acted with willful blindness; and/or contributed to infringement by one or more third parties as SHOE had knowledge, rather than intent, that its activity caused such infringement.

19. Furthermore, Plaintiff would argue that a means plus function claim is present. By way of example, claim 10 of the 998' Patent, "a system for reporting impending vehicle deliveries, comprising: means for receiving a plurality of packages; means for assigning each of said packages to a vehicle; means for determining an order that said vehicle is to deliver said packages; means for determining, based on said order, a first time period that said vehicle is expected to deliver one of said packages to a recipient; means for causing a notification message to be transmitted to said recipient, said notification message indicating said first time period; means for simultaneously transporting each of said packages via said vehicle; and means for transporting said one package to a premises of said recipient via said vehicle."

20. SHOE'S contributory infringement and/or inducement to infringe has injured and will continue to injure Plaintiff unless and until a monetary judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiff and/or the Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement and, specifically, enjoining further use of methods and systems that come within the scope of the 7,030,781, 6,975,998, 7,400,970 and 6,904,359 patents.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court to enter judgment against SHOE and its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, servants, employees and all persons in active concert or participation with SHOE, granting the following relief:

- B. Increased damages as permitted pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- C. A finding that this case is exceptional and award to Plaintiff its attorney's fees and costs as provided by 35 U.S.C. § 285;
- D. A permanent injunction against SHOE prohibiting further infringement of the patents at issue; and,
