5. Plaintiff, Shipping and Transit, LLC, is a Florida Limited Liability Company with a principal place of business located in Boynton Beach, Florida.

THE DEFENDANT

6. Defendant, ARAMEX, is a Delaware Corporation with a principal place of business located in Springfield Gardens, New York. Upon information and belief, ARAMEX transacts business in Florida and within this Judicial District, and has, at a minimum, offered to provide and/or has provided to customers within this Judicial District and throughout the State of Florida services and/or products that infringe claims of the '970 patent.

THE PLAINTIFF'S PATENTS

7. Plaintiff owns all rights, titles and interests in, and/or has standing to sue for infringement of United States Patent Number 7,400,970 ("the '970 patent"), entitled "System and Method for an Advance Notification System for Monitoring and Reporting Proximity of a Vehicle", issued July 15, 2008. A copy of the '970 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit 1.

COUNT I
DIRECT PATENT INFRINGEMENT

8. Plaintiff hereby incorporates Paragraphs 1 through 7 set forth above as if fully set forth herein.

9. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), ARAMEX has directly infringed claims of the '970 patent through, among other activities, the commercial manufacture, sale, offer for sale, and/or use of its "ARAMEX's Tracking System/Shop and Ship" ("Defendant's Systems")

10. At a minimum, the Defendant's Systems in question infringe claims 1 and 8 of the '970 patent, in as much as it allows a user to track the movement of a vehicle that allows Defendants customers real-time access to their shipments ("dedicated fleet of GPS-equipped trucks that operate over a massive land network offering comprehensive supply chain solutions and providing visibility through shipment tracking" www.aramex.com), and communicates a notification to a user of the vehicle's status through automated email updates ("You can track your shipment using your mobile phone, anytime and anywhere! Send the shipment number via SMS to one or Aramex numbers and get SMS instant update on the status of your shipment" www.aramex.com).

11. ARAMEX'S direct infringement has injured and will continue to injure Plaintiff unless and until a monetary judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiff and/or the Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement and, specifically, enjoining further use of methods and systems that come within the scope of the '970 patent.

REQUEST FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests this Court to enter judgment against ARAMEX and its subsidiaries, affiliates, agents, servants, employees and all persons in active concert or participation with ARAMEX, granting the following relief:

14. At a minimum, the Defendant's Systems in question infringe claims 1 and 8 of the '970 patent, in as much as it allows a user to track the movement of a vehicle that allows Defendants customers real-time access to their shipments ("dedicated fleet of GPS-equipped trucks that operate over a massive land network offering comprehensive supply chain solutions and providing visibility through shipment tracking" www.aramex.com), and communicates a notification to a user of the vehicle's status through automated email updates ("You can track your shipment using your mobile phone, anytime and anywhere! Send the shipment number via SMS to one or Aramex numbers and get SMS instant update on the status of your shipment" www.aramex.com).

15. ARAMEX'S contributory infringement and/or inducement to infringe has injured and will continue to injure Plaintiff unless and until a monetary judgment is entered in favor of Plaintiff and/or the Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement and, specifically, enjoining further use of methods and systems that come within the scope of the '970 patents.
