THE PATENTS-IN-SUIT

1
2 8. On July 2, 2002, United States Patent No. 6,415,207 (“the ’207 Patent”),
3 entitled, “System and method for automatically providing vehicle status information”
4 was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. A true
5 and correct copy of the ’207 Patent is attached as Exhibit A to this complaint.

6 9. On July 13, 2004, United States Patent No. 6,763,299 (“the ’299 Patent”),
7 entitled, “Notification systems and methods with notifications based upon prior stop
8 locations” was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office.
9 D true and correct copy of the ’299 Patent is attached as Exhibit B to this complaint.

10 10. Plaintiff is the assignee and owner of the right, title and interest in and to the 11 ’207 Patent, and ’299 Patent including the right to assert all causes of action arising 12 under said patents and the right to any remedies for infringement of them.

DEFENDANT’S INFRINGEMENTS

14 11. Without license or authorization and in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(a),
15 Defendant has infringed and continues to infringe the ’299 and ’207 Patents by making,
16 using, offering for sale and/or selling within this district and elsewhere in the United 17 States a computer based notification system that enables communication with a user that 18 is designed to receive delivery of a package and provides a means for requesting entry by 19 user of a package identification number.

20 12. By way of example, Defendant’s ship notice/manifest, sometimes referred to 21 as the Advanced Shipment Notice (ASN), or the 856 EDI document, is generated when a
22 user at a computer system elects to purchase an item via Defendant’s website and enters
23 an email address as part of the purchase process. Defendant explains by purchasing they 24 will be provided “order confirmation” and more importantly “shipment confirmation” by 25 selecting to purchase from their website. When a user selects a method of shipping when 26 purchasing an item from Defendant’s website, a user necessarily is required to elect a 27 shipping method that allows tracking. Once this election is made, and as the order is 28 processed, shipment confirmations are sent based on a tracking input when the package

1 starts its route (likely pick-up, placed on conveyer belt and/or scanned out to loading
2 dock/out of warehouse, etc.) to its destination (delivery address). This process is
3 evidenced on Defendant's web page:

20 2. Shipment tracking numbers! We can send them!

21 Now, whenever you place an order, you'll get a USPS tracking number in your shipment confirmation email. This was a heavily
22 requested feature, and we're really happy that we've rolled it out. It might take a couple of days for the link to activate, as the 23 labels are made before the coasters, but once they're sent to the post office you'll be able to see them coming!

24 Unfortunately, for our international customers, USPS only provides tracking within the USA. We working on alternative shipping
25 options, but the weight of the coasters makes this a little pricey.

26 What are you up to now? I think you should probably test our our new shipping system, and start your set.

1
2 Order Confirmation

3 We will email you twice after your order is placed. The first email is to confirm the placement of your order and
4 the second email is to confirm the processing of your payment and provide you with an estimate of delivery time.
5 In the event that there is an error in this email confirmation, it is your responsibility to inform us as soon as 6 possible.

12 14. Defendant has in the past and still is directly (and through inducement)

14 the '207 Patent by making, using, offering for sale and/or selling within this district and 15 elsewhere in the United States a computer based notification system that enables

3 reckless and willful.

4 20. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to recover from Defendant the damages
5 sustained by Plaintiff as a result of Defendant's infringement of the '207 Patent in an
6 amount subject to proof at trial, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty,
7 together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

15 communication with a user that is designed to receive delivery of a package and provides 16 a means for requesting entry by user of a package identification number.

17 23. The use of a computer based notification system whereby a customer
18 requests and receives an email notification tracking her shipment is material to practicing
19 the methods of the '299 Patent.

20 24. Defendant has knowledge of the fact that its products and services as 21 administered infringe one or more claims of the '299 Patent, and as direct, firsthand
22 knowledge of the '299 Patent as a result of Plaintiff informing Defendant of the '299
23 Patent and Defendant's infringement thereof by way of a letter dated January 14, 2016.

24 25. Thus, Defendant has been on notice of the '299 Patent since at least the date
25 it received Plaintiff's letter dated January 14, 2016.

26 26. Upon information and belief, Defendant has not altered its infringing
27 conduct after receiving Plaintiff's letter dated January 14, 2016.

1 27. Upon information and belief, Defendant’s continued infringement despite its
2 knowledge of the ’299 Patent and the accusations of infringement has been objectively
3 reckless and willful.

4 28. Plaintiff is therefore entitled to recover from Defendant the damages
5 sustained by Plaintiff as a result of Defendant’s infringement of the ’299 Patent in an
