3. Defendant LG Electronics USA, Inc. (“LG Electronics USA”) is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware with its principal place of business at 1000 Sylvan Ave Englewood Cliffs, NJ 07632. Defendant can be served with process through its registered, agent United State Corporation Co. 211 E. 7th Street, Suite 620 Austin, Texas 78701.

JURISDICTION

4. This is an action for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, 35 U.S.C. §§ 1, et seq. This Court has jurisdiction over this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendants. Defendants conduct business in this judicial district and have committed acts of patent infringement in this judicial district, the State of Texas, and elsewhere in the United States.

6. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b), 1391(c) and 1400(b) because, among other things, Defendants are subject to personal jurisdiction in this judicial district, Defendants have regularly conducted business in this judicial district, and certain of the acts complained of herein occurred in this judicial district.

PATENTS-IN-SUIT

7. On July 22, 1997, the United States Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued U.S. Patent No. 5,650,666 (the “’666 Patent”) entitled “Method and Apparatus for Preventing Cracks in Semiconductor Die.” A true and correct copy of the ’666 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

8. On December 8, 1998, the United States Patent and Trademark Office duly and legally issued U.S. Patent No. 5,846,874 (the “’874 Patent”) entitled “Method and Apparatus for Preventing Cracks in Semiconductor Die.” A true and correct copy of the ’874 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

9. Mariner is the sole and exclusive owner of all right, title and interest in the '666 Patent and '874 Patent (together, the "Patents-In-Suit"), and holds the exclusive right to take all actions necessary to enforce its rights to the Patents-In-Suit, including the filing of this patent infringement lawsuit. Mariner also has the right to recover all damages for past, present, and future infringement of the Patents-In-Suit and to seek injunctive relief as appropriate under the law.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

10. The Patents-In-Suit generally cover anchor structures that are placed in the corners and around the edges of a semiconductor die to prevent cracks in the die due to stress. The anchor structures are positioned at a 45-degree angle to the sides of the die and are comprised of at least a substrate layer, a metal layer and an oxide layer. The placement of the anchor structures more uniformly distributes stresses along the anchor preventing cracks at the corners of the die.

11. Semiconductors using anchor structures of the type taught and disclosed in the patents-in-suit are found in many high definition televisions, hard drives, touch screen controllers, and other widely available products. These semiconductors include system-on-chip ("SoC") integrated circuits.

COUNT I (Infringement of the '666 Patent)

12. Paragraphs 1 through 11 are incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth in their entirety.

13. Mariner has not licensed or otherwise authorized Defendants to make, use, offer for sale, sell, or import any products that embody the inventions of the '666 Patent.

14. Defendants have and continue to directly infringe the '666 Patent, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, without authority and in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271, by making, using, offering to sell, selling and/or importing into the United States products that satisfy each and every limitation of one or more claims of the '666 Patent. Upon information and belief, these products include LG Televisions that include LG processors including, but not limited to, LG XD Engine Processors. By way of example, infringing LG Televisions include the LG42LA6200, which televisions include an LG XD Engine processor such as the LGE2122 processor.

15. Mariner has suffered damages as a result of Defendants' direct infringement of the '666 Patent in an amount to be proved at trial.

16. Mariner has suffered, and will continue to suffer, irreparable harm as a result of Defendants' infringement of the '666 Patent, for which there is no adequate remedy at law, unless Defendants' infringement is enjoined by this Court.

COUNT II
(Infringement of the '874 Patent)

17. Paragraphs 1 through 16 are incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth in their entireties.

18. Mariner has not licensed or otherwise authorized Defendants to make, use, offer for sale, sell, or import any products that embody the inventions of the '874 Patent.

19. Defendants have and continue to directly infringe the '874 Patent, either literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, without authority and in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271, by making, using, offering to sell, selling and/or importing into the United States products made by the method claimed in one or more claims of the '874 Patent. Upon information and belief, these products include LG Televisions that include LG processors including, but not limited to, LG

XD Engine Processors. By way of example, infringing LG Televisions include the LG42LA6200, which televisions include an LG XD Engine processor such as the LGE2122 processor.

20. Mariner has suffered damages as a result of Defendants' direct infringement of the '874 Patent in an amount to be proved at trial.
