6. Uniloc brings this action for patent infringement under the patent laws of the United States, namely 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, and 284-285, among others. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338(a), and 1367.

7. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(c) and 1400(b). On information and belief, Defendants are deemed to reside in this judicial district, has committed acts of infringement in this judicial district, has purposely transacted business involving its accused products in this judicial district and/or, has regular and established places of business in this judicial district.

8. Defendants are subject to this Court's personal jurisdiction pursuant to due process and/or the Texas Long Arm Statute, due at least to its substantial business in this State and judicial district, including: (A) at least part of its infringing activities alleged herein; and (B) regularly doing or soliciting business, engaging in other persistent conduct, and/or deriving substantial revenue from goods sold and services provided to Texas residents.

COUNT I (INFRINGEMENT OF '526 PATENT)

9. Uniloc incorporates paragraphs 1 through 7 herein by reference.

10. Uniloc Luxembourg is the owner, by assignment, of the '526 patent, entitled "METHOD AND SYSTEM FOR FLEXIBLY ORGANIZING, RECORDING, AND DISPLAYING MEDICAL PATIENT CARE INFORMATION USING FIELDS IN FLOWSHEET.” A true and correct copy of the ’526 patent is attached as Exhibit A.

11. Uniloc USA is the exclusive licensee of the ’526 patent with ownership of all substantial rights in the ’526 patent, including the right to grant sublicenses, exclude others and to enforce, sue and recover damages for past and future infringements.

12. The ’526 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

13. On information and belief, to the extent any marking was required by 35 U.S.C. § 287, Uniloc and all predecessors in interest to the ’526 patent complied with any such requirements.

14. Defendants directly or through intermediaries have infringed and continue to infringe (literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents) one or more claims of the ’526 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas, including at least Claim 4, without Uniloc’s consent or authorization. The infringing products include, as non-limiting examples, the products and services in listed in Exhibit C, which are not licensed under the ’526 Patent or ’451 Patent, and have received federal certification by the Office of the National Coordinator (ONC–ATCB) as being complete Electronic Health Record (“EHR”) products (hereinafter “Infringing Products”). Defendants’ infringement occurs and has occurred through operation of the Infringing Products, which each practice the method of one or more claims of the ’526 patent. Such operation includes Defendants’ own operations (through, among other things, operations by its employees) as well as operations Defendants have done on their behalf, for example, through third parties.

15. Throughout the claim construction process in the pending case of Uniloc USA, Inc. et al v. e-MDs, Inc. et al., Case No. 6:14-cv-625, defendants argued that the claims of the ’526 patent requires a “user,” and therefore, developers of the certified EHR products listed in Exhibit C cannot practice the claims of the ‘526 patent. Instead, the developer defendants argue that if anyone, it is the end users, such as physicians, nurses and the healthcare systems in hospitals and clinics are the parties practicing the claims of the ‘526 patent.

16. Uniloc has been and continues to be damaged as a result of Defendants’ infringing conduct described in this Count. Defendants are thus liable to Uniloc in an amount that adequately compensates it for Defendants’ infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT II
(INFRINGEMENT OF THE ‘451 PATENT)

17. Uniloc incorporates all the preceding paragraphs herein by reference.

18. Uniloc Luxembourg is the owner, by assignment, of the ’451 patent, entitled “METHOD AND SYSTEM FOR CONSTRUCTING FORMULAE FOR PROCESSING MEDICAL DATA.” A true and correct copy of the ’451 patent is attached as Exhibit B.

19. Uniloc USA is the exclusive licensee of the ’451 patent with ownership of all substantial rights in the ’451 patent, including the right to grant sublicenses, exclude others and to enforce, sue and recover damages for past and future infringements.

20. The ’451 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

21. Defendants directly or through intermediaries have infringed and continue to infringe (literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents) one or more claims of the ’451 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas, including at least Claim 7, without Uniloc’s consent or authorization. Defendants’ infringement occurs and has occurred through using the Infringing Products, and, also, by operation of the Infringing Products, which each practice the method of one or more claims of the '451 patent. Such operation includes Defendants' own operations (through, among other things, operations by its employees) as well as operations Defendants have done on their behalf, for example, through third parties.

22. Throughout the claim construction process in the pending case of Uniloc USA, Inc. et al v. e-MDs, Inc. et al., Case No. 6:14-cv-625, defendants argued that the claims of the '526 patent require a "user," and therefore, developers of the certified EHR products listed in Exhibit C cannot practice the claims of the '451 patent. Instead, the developer defendants argue that if anyone, it is the end users, such as physicians, nurses and the healthcare systems in hospitals and clinics who are the parties practicing the claims of the '451 patent.

23. Uniloc has been and continues to be damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count. Defendants are thus liable to Uniloc in an amount that adequately compensates it for Defendants' infringement, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

JURY DEMAND

24. Uniloc hereby requests a trial by jury pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Uniloc requests that the Court find in its favor and against Defendants, and that the Court grant Uniloc the following relief:

- a. Judgment that one or more claims of the '526 and '451 Patents have been infringed, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by Defendants;

- b. Judgment that Defendants account for and pay to Uniloc all damages to and costs incurred by Uniloc because of Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein;
- c. That Uniloc be granted pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on the damages caused by Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein; and
- d. That Uniloc be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances.
