COUNT III

VIOLATION OF THE MICHIGAN CONSUMER PROTECTION ACT

42. The allegations of paragraphs 1-23 of this Complaint are incorporated by reference as though set forth in full herein.

43. Defendants are engaged in trade or commerce by offering to license the '701 patent to Michigan residents.

44. Section 3 of the Michigan Consumer Protection Act (MCPA), MCL 445.903(1), states that certain unfair, unconscionable, or deceptive methods, acts, or practices in the conduct of trade or commerce that are unlawful, including:

“(n) Causing a probability of confusion or of misunderstanding as to the legal rights, obligations, or remedies of a party to a transaction.”

“(s) Failing to reveal a material fact, the omission of which tends to mislead or deceive the consumer, and which fact could not reasonably be known by the consumer.”

“(bb) Making a representation of fact or statement of fact material to the transaction such that a person reasonably believes the represented or suggested state of affairs to be other than it actually is.”

“(cc) Failing to reveal facts that are material to the transaction in light of representations of fact made in a positive manner.”

45. Defendants have violated the MCPA by representing that Fleetilla uses the technology claimed by the ‘701 patent because no good faith basis exist for concluding that this statement is true.

46. The PLA letter states that “Fleetilla employs the technology claimed and disclosed in United States Patent 6,958,701” and refers to a claim chart attached to the letter.

47. The analysis set forth in the claim chart is frivolous and unreasonable.

48. The analysis set forth in the claim chart is contrary to statements made to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) by the patent owner regarding the scope of the claims of the ‘701 Patent. Exhibit D, Patent Owner’s Preliminary Response to Petition for Inter Partes Review, Patent Trial and Appeal Board Case No. IPR2015-00397.

49. Defendants have violated the MCPA by failing to reveal a ruling made by the USPTO that casts serious doubt upon the validity of the ‘701 patent, and by making representations of fact that are inconsistent with the likely invalidity of the ‘701 patent.

50. The USPTO issued an Institution Decision in Patent Trial and Appeal Board Case No. IPR2015-00397. Exhibit E, Decision - Institution of Inter Partes Review, Patent Trial and Appeal Board Case No. IPR2015-00397.

51. In the Institution Decision, the USPTO found that there is a “reasonable likelihood” that certain claims of the ‘701 patent are invalid, including claim 10. Exhibit E, at p. 26.

52. In the PLA letter, Defendants assert that Fleetilla uses the technology of claim 10 of ‘701 patent and claims that Fleetilla requires a license, but fail to reveal the likelihood that claim 10 is invalid.

53. Pursuant to Section 11 of the MCPA, MCL 445.911(1)(a), Fleetilla seeks a declaratory judgment that Defendants' practices are unlawful under section 3.

54. Pursuant to Section 11 of the MCPA, MCL 445.911(1)(b), Fleetilla seeks a declaratory judgment that Defendants' practices are unlawful under section 3.

55. Pursuant to Section 11 of the MCPA, MCL 445.911(2)(b), Fleetilla seeks actual or exemplary damages together with reasonable attorneys' fees.
