

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS
TEXARKANA DIVISION

PACKET TREAD LLC,

Plaintiff,

v.

UBIQUITI NETWORKS INC.,

Defendant.

No. 5:16-cv-94-JRG-CMC

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

FIRST AMENDED COMPLAINT FOR PATENT INFRINGEMENT

Plaintiff Packet Tread LLC, by and through its undersigned counsel, files its First Amended Complaint for Patent Infringement and alleges based on knowledge as to itself and information and belief as to the Defendant as follows:

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Packet Tread LLC is a Texas limited liability company with a principal place of business at 1400 Preston Rd, Suite 485, Plano, Texas 75093.
2. Defendant Ubiquiti Networks Inc. is a Delaware corporation with a principal place of business at 2580 Orchard Parkway, San Jose, California 95131. Defendant's registered agent for service of process is The Corporation Trust Company, Corporation Trust Center, 1209 Orange Street, Wilmington, Delaware 19801.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. This action arises under the Patent Act, 35 U.S.C. § 1 et seq.
4. Subject matter jurisdiction is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338.
5. Upon information and belief, this Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant because (i) Defendant conducts business in this Judicial District, directly or through intermediaries, (ii) at least a portion of the alleged infringements occurred in this Judicial District; and (iii)

Defendant regularly solicits business, engages in other persistent courses of conduct, or derives revenue from goods and services provided to individuals in this Judicial District.

6. Venue is proper in this Judicial District under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b), (c), and 1400(b).

THE PATENT-IN-SUIT

7. On October 30, 2001, the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office duly and lawfully issued U.S. Patent No. 6,310,864 (“the 864 patent”), entitled “Voice Echo Cancellation for SVD Modems.” A true and accurate copy of the 864 patent is attached at Exhibit A.

8. Plaintiff is the owner and assignee of all right, title, and interest in and to the 864 patent, including the right to assert all causes of action arising under the patent and the right to sue for any and all past and future remedies for infringement of the patent.

THE ACCUSED PRODUCTS

9. Defendant makes, uses, sells, offers for sale, or imports one or more products that infringe one or more claims of the 864 patent.

10. Defendant’s Accused Products are its UVP-Executive UniFi® VoIP Phone and UVP-Pro UniFi® VoIP Phone.

11. Defendant provides instructions with its Accused Products that enable its customers to infringe directly one or more claims of the 864 patent.

COUNT I

DIRECT AND INDUCED INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,310,864

12. Plaintiff incorporates by reference each of its foregoing allegations.

13. Without license or authorization and in violation of 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(a) and (b), (i) Defendant directly infringes one or more claims of the 864 patent in this District and throughout the United States, literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, and additionally, or in the alternative, (ii) Defendant actively induces the direct infringement of one or more claims of the 864 patent in this District and throughout the United States.

14. Defendant directly infringes at least claim 7 of the 864 patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(a) by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling, or importing within this District and the United States its Accused Products, which under claim 7 of the 864 patent provide a method of electrical communication via a first simultaneous voice and data modem (e.g., in a first of the Accused Products) associated with a switching hub of a communications network, comprising the steps of:

transmitting and receiving a modulated simultaneous voice and data signal (e.g., via the first of the Accused Products) using the first simultaneous voice and data modem to and from a second simultaneous voice and data modem (e.g., via a second of the Accused Products) located at an endpoint of the communications network;

transmitting and receiving a voice signal using the first simultaneous voice and data modem to and from a communications device (e.g., to and from the second of the Accused Products) via a switching network;

transmitting and receiving a data signal using the first simultaneous voice and data modem (e.g., via the first of the Accused Products); and canceling a voice echo originating in the switching network using an echo canceler associated with the first simultaneous voice and data modem (e.g., via the first of the Accused Products), the voice echo experiencing a delay resulting from the modulation and demodulation of the simultaneous voice and data signal in the first simultaneous voice and data modem (e.g., in the first of the Accused Products) and the second simultaneous voice and data modem (e.g., in the second of the Accused Products).

15. Claim 7 is understandable to a person of ordinary skill in the art who has the requisite education, training, and experience with the technology at issue in this case.

16. A person of ordinary skill in the art understands Plaintiff's theory of how Defendant's Accused Products infringe claim 7 upon a plain reading of this First Amended Complaint, the 864 patent, and claim 7.

17. Plaintiff reserves the right to modify its infringement theory as discovery progresses in this case and does not intend to be estopped for claim construction purposes by its preliminary infringement analysis as provided in this Complaint. Plaintiff's preliminary infringement analysis is not representative of its final claim construction positions.

18. Additionally, or in the alternative, Defendant is actively inducing the direct infringement of at least claim 7 of the 864 patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b) by, among other things, knowingly and intentionally encouraging, aiding, and abetting direct infringement by providing instructions with its Accused Products that inform its customers how to use its Accused Products in violation of at least claim 7, as provided above, with the specific intent that its customers directly infringe at least claim 7 based on its knowledge of providing its instructions with its Accused Products and that its customers are directly infringing at least claim 7 by following its instructions.

19. Since at least the date that Defendant was served with a copy of Plaintiff's Original Complaint, Defendant has known that its Accused Products directly infringe one or more claims of the 864 patent and that its instructions that it provides with its Accused Products inform its customers how to infringe directly at least claim 7 of the 864 patent.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Plaintiff requests the following relief:

A. Judgment that Defendant has infringed the 864 patent under 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(a) and (b);

B. An accounting of all infringing acts including, but not limited to, those acts not presented at trial.

C. An award of damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284 adequate to compensate Plaintiff for Defendant's past and future infringement, including any infringement from the date of filing of the Original Complaint through the date of judgment, together with interest and costs;

D. Judgment that this case is exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and an award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and

E. Such further relief at law or in equity that this Court deems just and proper.

JURY TRIAL DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury on all claims and issues so triable.

Dated: September 16, 2016
