BACKGROUND

12. Salazar is the owner of all rights, title and interest in and to United States patent No. 5,802,467 (“the ‘467 Patent”).

13. After the ‘467 Patent issued in 1998, beginning in 1999, Salazar manufactured and sold products that embody the inventions disclosed and claimed in the ‘467 Patent. These products were marked with U.S. Patent No. 5,802,467 in accordance with and in compliance with the Marking Statute, 35 U.S.C. § 287.

COUNT ONE INFRINGEMENT OF U. S. PATENT NO. 5,802,467

14. Salazar incorporates by reference herein the allegations set forth in paragraphs 1-11 herein.

15. Pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), Defendants have directly infringed (literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents) at least claims 1-7, 10, 14, 17, 23, 26-32, 34 of the ‘467 Patent by making, offering for sale or use, and/or selling, distributing, promoting or providing for use by others in the Eastern District of Texas and elsewhere in the United States, smartphone products including but not limited to HTC One M7, HTC One M8, and HTC One M9 that embody wireless communications, control and sensing systems for communicating with external devices, including televisions and other devices.

16. The accused HTC One smartphones are Android or Windows based phones and include microprocessors, memory devices, user interfaces, and infra-red frequency transceivers, among other components and features.

17. In violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b), Defendants have infringed (literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents) at least claims 1-7, 10, 14, 17, 23, 26-32, 34 of the '467 Patent indirectly by inducing the infringement of the '467 Patent claims by third parties, including their direct and indirect customers. Defendants have induced, caused, urged, encouraged, aided, and abetted its direct and indirect customers to infringe the claims of the '467 Patent.

18. Defendants have done so by affirmative acts including but not limited to selling infringing products, marketing the infringing capabilities of such products, and providing instructions, technical support, and other encouragement for the use of such products.

19. Defendants knowingly and specifically intended third parties to infringe the '467 Patent's claims. Defendants knew of the '467 Patent, performed affirmative acts that constitute induced infringement, and knew or should have known that those acts would induce actual infringement of one or more of the '467 Patent's claims by third parties.

20. Defendants had actual notice of the '467 Patent no later than the filing of Plaintiff's Original Complaint For Patent Infringement and, on information and belief, Defendants had knowledge of the '467 Patent since as early as September of 1998 when the '467 Patent issued and/or in 1999 and thereafter when products embodying the inventions disclosed and claimed in '467 Patent and bearing the '467 U.S. patent number were offered for sale and sold in the United States.

21. On information and belief, Defendants, while fully aware that at least their smartphone products HTC One M7, HTC One M8, and HTC One M9 infringe one or more of the claims of the '467 Patent, offered for sale, sold, and induced others to buy, use and sell these infringing products.

22. As a result of Defendants' infringement of the '467 Patent, Salazar has suffered monetary losses for which Salazar is entitled to an award of damages that are adequate to compensate Salazar for the infringement under 35 U.S.C. § 284, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty.

23. On information and belief, Defendants' infringement of the '467 Patent has been deliberate, willful and with full knowledge, or willful blindness to knowledge, of the '467 Patent.

24. Salazar has suffered damages in an amount to be determined at trial by reason of Defendants' willful infringement of the '467 Patent.
