3. This is an action for patent infringement arising under the patent laws of the United States, Title 35 of the United States Code.

4. This Court has exclusive subject matter jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

5. This Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant is incorporated in this District's state.

VENUE

6. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(b) because Defendant is incorporated in this District's state. In addition, Optima has suffered harm in this district.

PATENT-IN-SUIT

7. Optima is the assignee of all right, title and interest in United States Patent No. 8,646,060 (the "'060 Patent"); (the "Patent-in-Suit"); including all rights to enforce and prosecute actions for infringement and to collect damages for all relevant times against infringers of the Patent-in-Suit. Accordingly, Optima possesses the exclusive right and standing to prosecute the present action for infringement of the Patent-in-Suit by Defendant.

The '060 Patent

8. The '060 Patent is entitled "Method for adaptive authentication using a mobile device," and issued February 4, 2014. The application leading to the '060 Patent was filed on 7/30/2013. A true and correct copy of the '060 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 and incorporated herein by reference.

9. The '060 Patent is valid and enforceable.

COUNT 1: INFRINGEMENT OF THE '060 PATENT

10. Optima incorporates the above paragraphs herein by reference.

11. Direct Infringement. Defendant has been and continues to directly infringe one or more claims of the '060 Patent in at least this District by making, using, offering to sell, selling and/or importing, without limitation, at least the OneLogin products identified in the charts incorporated into this Count below (among the "Exemplary OneLogin Products") that infringe at least the exemplary claims of the '060 Patent also identified in the charts incorporated into this Count below (the "Exemplary '060 Patent Claims") literally or by the doctrine of equivalents. On information and belief, numerous other devices that infringe the claims of the '060 Patent have been made, used, sold, imported, and offered for sale by Defendant and/or its customers.

12. Defendant also has and continues to directly infringe, literally or under the doctrine of equivalents, the Exemplary '060 Patent Claims, by having its employees internally test and use these Exemplary Products.

13. The service of this Complaint upon Defendant constitutes actual knowledge of infringement as alleged here.

14. Despite such actual knowledge, Defendant continues to make, use, test, sell, offer for sale, market, and/or import into the United States, products that infringe the '060 Patent. On information and belief, Defendant has also continued to sell the Exemplary OneLogin Products and distribute product literature and website materials inducing end users and others to use its products in the customary and intended manner that infringes the '060 Patent. Thus, on information and belief, Defendant is contributing to and/or inducing the infringement of the '060 Patent.

15. Induced Infringement. Defendant actively, knowingly, and intentionally has been and continues to induce infringement of the '060 Patent, literally or by the doctrine of equivalents, by selling Exemplary OneLogin Products to their customers for use in end-user products in a manner that infringes one or more claims of the '060 Patent.

16. Contributory Infringement. Defendant actively, knowingly, and intentionally has been and continues materially contribute to their own customers' infringement of the '060 Patent, literally or by the doctrine of equivalents, by selling Exemplary OneLogin Products to their customers for use in end-user products in a manner that infringes one or more claims of the '060 Patent. Moreover, the Exemplary OneLogin Products are not a staple article of commerce suitable for substantial noninfringing use.

17. Exhibit 2 includes charts comparing the Exemplary '060 Patent Claims to the Exemplary OneLogin Products. As set forth in these charts, the Exemplary OneLogin Products practice the technology claimed by the '060 Patent. Accordingly, the Exemplary OneLogin Products incorporated in these charts satisfy all elements of the Exemplary '060 Patent Claims.

18. Optima therefore incorporates by reference in its allegations herein the claim charts of Exhibit 2.

19. Optima is entitled to recover damages adequate to compensate for Defendant's infringement.

JURY DEMAND

20. Under Rule 38(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Optima respectfully requests a trial by jury on all issues so triable.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Optima respectfully requests the following relief:

- A. A judgment that the '060 Patent is valid and enforceable;
- B. A judgment that Defendant has infringed, contributorily infringed, and/or induced infringement of one or more claims of the '060 Patent;
