A Notice is hereby given that Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam, a Woman, one of the People of California and the Republic of the United States of America, and inventor of the Internet of Things — Web Apps displayed on a Web browser — hereby timely appeals to the United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, now a common law Court of Record, from:

1. The Order entered in this case on 1/27/2020 (D.I. 205) refusing to enforce the Mandated Prohibition against repudiating Government issued Grants in Breach of Solemn Oath, contrary to — the Constitution, as moved in (D.I. 203), and refusing to vacate its unconstitutional voided Order (D.I. 202) and enter a new and different lawful order that is constitutional etc. (D.I. 204); directly, resulting in injury to Dr. Lakshmi Arunachalam, a Woman, and this Claim. The Wrongdoers and Respondents exceeded jurisdiction. They have been in dishonor and contempt, breached their fiduciary duty, public trust and their solemn oaths of office and in corrupt association, denied me due process and my rights and moved into jurisdiction unknown. I believe I have been done wrong, because they interfered with my rights. I have been harmed because they violated my rights. I want damages for my injury. I order immediate compensation for interfering with my rights. This is now a common law court. I am the claimant, I am the tribunal of the Court, I am the prosecutor in this Court. I order the Clerk of the Court to move this into the Claims side of the Court, to the Common Law Court of Record. I order any man or woman who says I did any wrong to step forward. I order and demand that the Respondents put up their bonds, as they have harmed me and I am the creditor and they collectively owe me at least a hundred billion dollars.
