COUNT I

INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,685,439

7. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

8. Plaintiff owns by assignment all rights, title, and interest in U.S. Patent No. 7,685,439 (the “’439 Patent”), entitled “Method for Effecting the Controlled Shutdown of Data Processing Units.” The ’439 Patent was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office on March 23, 2010. A true and correct copy of the ’439 Patent is attached as Exhibit 1.

9. On information and belief, Defendant makes, uses, offers for sale, sells, and/or imports certain products (“Accused Products”), such as System-on-Chip, personal computer, tablet, and laptop devices, that directly infringe, literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, at least Claim 1 of the ’439 Patent.

10. Defendant also knowingly and intentionally induces infringement of at least Claim 1 of the ’439 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b). Through at least the filing and service of this Complaint, Defendant has knowledge of the ’439 Patent and the infringing nature of the Accused Products. Despite this knowledge of the ’439 Patent, Defendant continues to actively encourage and instruct its customers and end users (for example, through user manuals and online instruction materials on its website) to use the Accused Products in ways that directly infringe the ’439 Patent. Defendant does so knowing and intending that its customers and end users will commit these infringing acts. Defendant also continues to make, use, offer for sale, sell, and/or import the Accused Products, despite its knowledge of the ’439 Patent, thereby specifically intending for and inducing its customers to infringe the '439 Patent through the customers' normal and customary use of the Accused Products.

11. Defendant has also infringed, and continues to infringe, at least Claim 1 of the '439 Patent by selling, offering for sale, or importing into the United States, the Accused Products, knowing that the Accused Products constitute a material part of the inventions claimed in the '439 Patent, are especially made or adapted to infringe the '439 Patent, and are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for non-infringing use. Defendant has been, and currently is, contributorily infringing the '439 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(c) and (f).

12. The Accused Products satisfy all claim limitations of one or more claims of the '439 Patent. A claim chart comparing independent claim 1 of the '439 Patent to representative Accused Products (including but not limited to the Dell Inspiron 11 3915) is attached as Exhibit 2, which is hereby incorporated by reference in its entirety.

13. By making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing into the United States the Accused Products, Defendant has injured Plaintiff and is liable for infringement of the '439 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

14. As a result of Defendant's infringement of the '439 Patent, Plaintiff is entitled to monetary damages in an amount adequate to compensate for Defendant's infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by Defendant, together with interest and costs as fixed by the Court.

15. Defendant has knowledge of the '439 Patent at least due to the filing of this Complaint, and based on that knowledge, it willfully infringes the '439 Patent.

16. Defendant's infringing activities have injured and will continue to injure Plaintiff, unless and until this Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement of the '439 Patent, and, specifically, enjoining further manufacture, use, sale, importation, and/or offers for sale that come within the scope of the patent claims.

COUNT II

INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 8,099,614

17. Plaintiff realleges and incorporates by reference the foregoing paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

18. Plaintiff owns by assignment all rights, title, and interest in U.S. Patent No. 8,099,614 (the “’614 Patent”), entitled “Power Management for Buses in CMOS Circuits.” The ’614 Patent was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office on January 17, 2012. A true and correct copy of the ’614 Patent is attached as Exhibit 3.

19. On information and belief, Defendant makes, uses, offers for sale, sells, and/or imports certain products (“Accused Products”), such as System-on-Chip, personal computer, tablet, and laptop devices, that directly infringe, literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, at least Claim 1 of the ’614 Patent.

20. Defendant also knowingly and intentionally induces infringement of at least Claim 1 of the ’614 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. § 271(b). Through at least the filing and service of this Complaint, Defendant has knowledge of the ’614 Patent and the infringing nature of the Accused Products. Despite this knowledge of the ’614 Patent, Defendant continues to actively encourage and instruct its customers and end users (for example, through user manuals and online instruction materials on its website) to use the Accused Products in ways that directly infringe the ’614 Patent. Defendant does so knowing and intending that its customers and end users will commit these infringing acts. Defendant also continues to make, use, offer for sale, sell, and/or import the Accused Products, despite its knowledge of the ’614 Patent, thereby specifically intending for and inducing its customers to infringe the '614 Patent through the customers' normal and customary use of the Accused Products.

21. Defendant has also infringed, and continues to infringe, at least Claim 1 of the '614 Patent by selling, offering for sale, or importing into the United States, the Accused Products, knowing that the Accused Products constitute a material part of the inventions claimed in the '614 Patent, are especially made or adapted to infringe the '614 Patent, and are not staple articles or commodities of commerce suitable for non-infringing use. Defendant has been, and currently is, contributorily infringing the '614 Patent in violation of 35 U.S.C. §§ 271(c) and (f).

22. The Accused Products satisfy all claim limitations of one or more claims of the '614 Patent. A claim chart comparing independent claim 1 of the '614 Patent to representative Accused Products (including but not limited to the Dell Inspiron 11 3915) is attached as Exhibit 4, which is hereby incorporated by reference in its entirety.

23. By making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing into the United States the Accused Products, Defendant has injured Plaintiff and is liable for infringement of the '614 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

24. As a result of Defendant's infringement of the '614 Patent, Plaintiff is entitled to monetary damages in an amount adequate to compensate for Defendant's infringement, but in no event less than a reasonable royalty for the use made of the invention by Defendant, together with interest and costs as fixed by the Court.

25. Defendant also has knowledge of its infringement of the '614 Patent at least due the filing of the Complaint, and based on that knowledge, it willfully infringes the '614 Patent.

26. Defendant's infringing activities have injured and will continue to injure Plaintiff, unless and until this Court enters an injunction prohibiting further infringement of the '614 Patent, and, specifically, enjoining further manufacture, use, sale, importation, and/or offers for sale that come within the scope of the patent claims.
