1 PLAINTIFF AND ITS RIGHTS

2 10. Airbiquity was incorporated in 1997 to design, develop, manufacture, and sell wireless
3 communications solutions that enable product suppliers and service providers in the M2M and telematics
4 industries to deliver wireless data. Airbiquity has sold, and continues to sell, these products and 5 technologies throughout the United States and internationally.

6 11. The United States Patent and Trademark Office (“PTO”) has recognized Airbiquity’s
7 innovations by awarding numerous United States patents covering Airbiquity’s technology.

8 12. On January 20, 2004, the PTO duly and lawfully issued United States Patent No. 6,681,121
9 (“the ‘121 patent”), entitled Circuitry for Activating a Modem in a Cellular Telephone. Airbiquity is the 10 assignee and sole owner of the ‘121 patent, a true and correct copy of which is attached hereto as 11 Exhibit 1.

12 13. On April 17, 2007, the PTO duly and lawfully issued United States Patent No. 7,206,305 (“the

22 offering to sell cellular telephones in the United States and in this Judicial District, which incorporate and
23 employ technology in conformity with the 3GPP cellular text telephone modem standard, and thereby
24 infringe, directly and/or by inducing or contributing to infringement of, one or more claims of the ‘121,
25 ‘305, and ‘669 patents.
26

6 § 271 et seq.

7 18. Defendants' infringement has been willful.

8 19. By infringing directly and/or by inducing or contributing to the infringement of one or more
9 claims of the '121, '305, and '669 patents, defendants have unfairly reaped a substantial commercial
10 advantage and savings in research and development time and cost, all to Airbiquity's detriment.
11 Airbiquity has been, and will continue to be, damaged by such infringement in an amount to be proven at 12 trial, and in a manner and amount that cannot be fully measured or compensated in economic terms and 13 for which there is no adequate remedy at law. Defendants' actions have damaged, and will continue to 14 damage, Airbiquity's business, profits, market share, reputation, and goodwill unless Defendants' acts
15 complained of herein are enjoined.

19 and all persons acting for, with, by, through, or under them or any of them, be permanently enjoined:

20 (a) From infringing any claim of the '121, '305, and '669 patents, either directly and/or 21 contributorily; and

22 (b) From inducing others to infringe any claim of the '121, '305, and '669 patents.
