JURISDICTION AND VENUE

31. This action arises under the patent laws of the United States, Title 35 of the United States Code. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

32. Venue is proper in this district under 28 U.S.C. §§1391 (b) and (c) and 1400(b). On information and belief, each Defendant has a regular and established place of business in this district, has transacted business in this district, and/or has committed and/or induced acts of patent infringement in this district.

33. On information and belief, Defendants are subject to this Court's specific and general personal jurisdiction pursuant to due process and/or the Texas Long Arm Statute, due at least to their substantial business in this forum, including: (i) at least a portion of the infringements alleged herein; and (ii) regularly doing or soliciting business, engaging in other persistent courses of conduct, and/or deriving substantial revenue from goods and services provided to individuals in Texas and in this judicial district.

COUNT I

INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,321,783

(Against All Defendants)

34. Minerva is owner by assignment of United States Patent No. 7,321,783 (the "783 Patent") entitled "Mobile Entertainment and Communication Device." The '783 Patent issued on January 22, 2008 from United States Patent Application No. 10/719,363 (the "'363 Application"). A true and correct copy of the '783 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

35. Ki Il Kim is listed as the inventor on the '783 Patent.

36. The '363 Application, from which the '783 Patent issued, was a Continuation Application of the application that issued as United States Patent No. 6,681,120 (the "'120 Patent") on January 20, 2004, also entitled "Mobile Entertainment and Communication Device." Ki Il Kim is listed as the inventor on the '120 Patent, and Minerva is owner by assignment of the '120 Patent. Minerva earlier filed litigation asserting infringement of the '120 Patent in this judicial district, i.e., Civil Action No: 2-07 CV-229, currently pending before The Honorable T. John Ward, and Civil Action No: 2-07 CV-230, currently pending before The Honorable David Folsom. Minerva intends to seek to consolidate this action with the already pending '120 Patent infringement actions.

37. Defendant Motorola has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant Motorola is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. Motorola has had actual notice of the '363 Application, which issued as the '783 Patent, since October 18, 2006.

38. Defendant Nokia has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant Nokia is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. Nokia has had actual notice of the '363 Application, which issued as the '783 Patent, since at least October 18, 2006.

39. Defendant Alltel has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant Alltel is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

40. Defendant AT&T has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant AT&T is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. AT&T has had actual notice of the '363 Application, which issued as the '783 Patent, since at least March 23, 2007.

41. Defendant Cellular One has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant Cellular One is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

42. Defendant HELIO has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant HELIO is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. HELIO has had actual notice of the '363 Application, which issued as the '783 Patent, since at least October 18, 2006.

43. Defendant HP has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant HP is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

44. Defendant MetroPCS has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant MetroPCS is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

45. Defendant Sprint has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant Sprint is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. Sprint has had actual notice of the '363 Application, which issued as the '783 Patent, since at least March 23, 2007.

46. Defendant Nextel Texas has been and now is directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of the '783 Patent in the State of Texas, in this judicial district, and elsewhere in the United States by, among other things, making, using, offering to sell, or selling mobile entertainment and communication devices covered by one or more claims of the '783 Patent to the injury of Minerva. Defendant Nextel Texas is thus liable for infringement of the '783 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271. Nextel Texas has had actual notice of the '363 Application, which issued as the '783 Patent, since at least March 23, 2007.
