JURISDICTION AND VENUE

32. This action arises under the patent laws of the United States, Title 35 of the United States Code. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

33. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(c) and 1400(b). On information and belief, each Defendant is deemed to reside in this judicial district, has committed acts of infringement in this judicial district, has purposely transacted business in this judicial district and/or has regular and established places of business in this judicial district.

34. Each Defendant is subject to this Court's specific and general personal jurisdiction pursuant to due process and/or the Hawai'i Long Arm Statute, due at least to their substantial business in this State and judicial district, including: (A) at least part of their infringing activities alleged herein; and (B) regularly doing or soliciting business and, accordingly, deriving substantial revenue from goods and services provided to Hawai'i residents.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND ALLEGATIONS

35. On June 30, 2009 United States Patent No. 7,555,267 (“the ‘267 patent”) was duly and legally issued for a “Network Communication System Wherein A Node Obtains Resources For Transmitting Data By Transmitting Two Reservation Requests.” A true and correct copy of the ‘267 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “A.”

36. The ‘267 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

37. On August 4, 2009 United States Patent No. 7,570,954 (“the ‘954 patent”) was duly and legally issued for a “Communication System Wherein A Clocking Signal From A Controller, A Request From A Node, Acknowledgement Of The Request, And Data Transferred From The Node Are All Provided On Different Frequencies, Enabling Simultaneous Transmission Of These Signals.” A true and correct copy of the ‘954 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.”

38. The ‘954 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

39. On September 7, 2010 United States Patent No. 7,792,492 (“the ‘492 patent”) was duly and legally issued for a “Network Communication System With An Alignment Signal To Allow A Controller To Provide Messages To Nodes And Transmission Of The Messages Over Four Independent Frequencies.” A true and correct copy of the ‘492 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “C.”

40. The ‘492 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

41. The ‘267, ‘954, and ‘492 patents (collectively, “the asserted patents”) disclose inventions that were conceived in Hawai‘i by two local residents. GPNE owns all right, title, and interest in and to the asserted patents, including the right to prosecute this action and recover damages for the infringements alleged herein. Inventor, Gabriel Wong, is the Chairman of GPNE. All of GPNE’s employees are residents of Hawai‘i.

COUNT ONE
(INFRINGEMENT OF THE ‘267 PATENT)

42. GPNE incorporates paragraphs 1 through 41 herein by reference.

43. This cause of action arises under the patent laws of the United States, and in particular, 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, et seq.

44. On information and belief, Amazon is directly infringing one or more claims of the ‘267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing e-readers with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Kindle, to customers.

45. On information and belief, Apple is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the iPhone 4, and computerized tablet devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the iPad, to customers.

46. On information and belief, B&N is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing e-readers with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Nook, to customers.

47. On information and belief, Garmin is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Nuvifone, to customers.

48. On information and belief, Nokia is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Nokia 6350 cellular phone, to customers.

49. On information and belief, Pantech is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Ease Mobile cellular phone, to customers.

50. On information and belief, RIM is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Torch 9800 smartphone, to customers.

51. On information and belief, Sharp is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Sharp FX cellular phone, to customers.

52. On information and belief, Sony Ericsson is directly infringing one or more claims of the '267 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 39, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Vivaz cellular phone, to customers.

53. GPNE has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count. Defendants are, thus, liable to GPNE in an amount that adequately compensates it for their infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT TWO
(INFRINGEMENT OF THE '954 PATENT)

54. GPNE incorporates paragraphs 1 through 41 herein by reference.

55. This cause of action arises under the patent laws of the United States, and in particular, 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, et seq.

56. On information and belief, Amazon is directly infringing one or more claims of the '954 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 13, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing e-readers with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Kindle, to customers.

57. 60. On information and belief, Nokia is directly infringing one or more claims of the '954 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 13, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Nokia 6350 cellular phone, to customers.

61. On information and belief, Pantech is directly infringing one or more claims of the '954 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 13, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Ease Mobile cellular phone, to customers.

62. On information and belief, RIM is directly infringing one or more claims of the '954 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 13, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Torch 9800 smartphone, to customers.

63. On information and belief, Sharp is directly infringing one or more claims of the '954 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 13, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Sharp FX cellular phone, to customers.

64. On information and belief, Sony Ericsson is directly infringing one or more claims of the '954 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 13, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Vivaz cellular phone, to customers.

65. GPNE has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count. Defendants are, thus, liable to GPNE in an amount that adequately compensates it for their infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT THREE
(INFRINGEMENT OF THE '492 PATENT)

66. GPNE incorporates paragraphs 1 through 41 herein by reference.

67. This cause of action arises under the patent laws of the United States, and in particular, 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, et seq.

68. On information and belief, Amazon is directly infringing one or more claims of the '492 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 37, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing e-readers with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Kindle, to customers.

69. On information and belief, Apple is directly infringing one or more claims of the '492 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 37, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the iPhone 4, and computerized tablet devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the iPad, to customers.

70. On information and belief, B&N is directly infringing one or more claims of the '492 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 37, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing e-readers with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Nook, to customers.

71. On information and belief, Garmin is directly infringing one or more claims of the '492 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including at least claim 37, by, among other things, making, using, offering for sale, selling and/or importing computerized communications devices with the ability to function with GPRS including, without limitation, the Nuvifone, to customers.

77. GPNE has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count. Defendants are, thus, liable to GPNE in an amount that adequately compensates it for their infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

GPNE requests that the Court find in its favor and against Defendants, and that the Court grant GPNE the following relief:

- A. Judgment that one or more claims of the '267, '954, and/or '492 patents have been infringed, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by one or more Defendants;
- B. Judgment that Defendants account for and pay to GPNE all damages to and costs incurred by GPNE, including attorneys' fees, because of Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein;
- C. Judgment that Defendants account for and pay to GPNE a reasonable, on-going, post judgment royalty because of Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein;
- D. That GPNE be granted pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on the damages caused by Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein; and

E. That GPNE be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances.
