II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

31. This is an action for infringement of two United States patents arising under 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, and 284-285, among others. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction of the action under Title 28 U.S.C. §1331 and §1338(a).

32. The Court has general and specific personal jurisdiction over each Defendant, and venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391 and 1400(b). Each Defendant has substantial contacts with the forum as a result of business conducted within the State of Texas and within this District. Specifically, each Defendant maintains a physical presence within this District, including at least one banking location, and/or conducts business with customers residing in this District through its interactive website(s), which website(s) provide secure online banking services. Additionally each Defendant has committed and continues to commit acts of patent infringement in this State and this District by operating a system for providing secure online banking, including online bill pay and other funds transfer services, to consumers in Texas and, particularly, the Eastern District.

III. PATENT INFRINGEMENT

33. On August 11, 1998, United States Patent No. 5,793,302 (“the ‘302 patent”) was duly and legally issued for a “Method for Securing Information Relevant to a Transaction.” A true and correct copy of the ‘302 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “A.” On October 26, 1999, United States Patent No. 5,974,148 (“the ‘148 patent”) was duly and legally issued for a “Method for Securing Information Relevant to a Transaction.” A true and correct copy of the ‘148 patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “B.” (The ‘302 and ‘148 patents are collectively referred to herein as “the patents-in-suit”). Stambler is the inventor and owner of all rights, title, and interest in and to the patents-in-suit and possesses all rights of recovery under them.

34. Defendants have infringed and continue to infringe, directly, contributorily, and/or through the inducement of others, the patents-in-suit by provision of their respective secure online banking services, including but not limited to online bill pay and other secure funds transfer services, in accordance with the claimed methods.

35. Stambler has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct. Defendants are, thus, liable to Stambler in an amount that adequately compensates him for their infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

36. Upon information and belief, Defendants are aware of the patents-in-suit, have knowledge of the infringing nature of their activities, have nevertheless continued their infringing activities, and their infringing activities have been and continue to be willful. Specifically, the Chase, Bank of America, Citi, Wachovia, Wells Fargo, and Regions Defendants were previously provided written notice of the patents-in-suit.

37. Each Defendant's infringements of Stambler's rights under the patents-in-suit will continue to damage Stambler, causing irreparable harm for which there is no adequate remedy at law, unless enjoined by this Court.

IV. JURY DEMAND

Stambler hereby requests a trial by jury pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Stambler requests that the Court find in his favor and against Defendants, and that the Court grant Stambler the following relief:

- a. Judgment that one or more claims of United States Patent Nos. 5,793,302 and 5,974,148 have been infringed, either literally and/or under the doctrine of equivalents, by one or more Defendants and/or by others to whose infringement Defendants have contributed and/or by others whose infringement has been induced by Defendants;
- b. Judgment that Defendants account for and pay to Stambler all damages to and costs incurred by Stambler because of Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein;
- c. That Defendants' infringements be found to be willful from the time that Defendants became aware of the infringing nature of their respective products and services, which is the time of filing of Plaintiff's Original Complaint at the latest, and that the Court award treble damages for the period of such willful infringement pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- d. A grant of permanent injunction pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283, enjoining the Defendants from further acts of infringement;
- e. That Stambler be granted pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on the damages caused by Defendants' infringing activities and other conduct complained of herein;
- f. That this Court declare this an exceptional case and award Stambler his reasonable attorney's fees and costs in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 285; and
- g. That Stambler be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances.

Dated: August 15, 2008.
