JURISDICTION AND VENUE

19. Unified Messaging brings this action for patent infringement under the patent laws of the United States, namely 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, and 284-285, among others.

20. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction over the claims in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1338(a), and 1367.

21. Venue is proper in this judicial district pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(c) and 1400(b). On information and belief, each Defendant is deemed to reside in this judicial district, has committed acts of infringement in this judicial district, has purposely transacted business in this judicial district, and/or has regular and established places of business in this judicial district.

22. Each Defendant is subject to this Court's specific and general personal jurisdiction pursuant to due process and/or the Texas Long Arm Statute, due at least to their substantial business in this State and judicial district, including: (A) at least part of their infringing activities alleged herein; and (B) regularly doing or soliciting business and, accordingly, deriving substantial revenue from goods and services provided to Texas residents.

COUNT I

(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 6,857,074)

23. Unified Messaging incorporates paragraphs 1 through 22 herein by reference.

24. Unified Messaging is the exclusive licensee of the '074 patent, entitled "Systems and Methods for Storing, Delivering, and Managing Messages," with ownership of all substantial rights in the '074 patent, including the right exclude others and to enforce, sue and recover damages for past and future infringement. A true and correct copy of the '074 patent is attached as Exhibit A.

25. The '074 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

26. Defendants have directly infringed and continue to directly infringe one or more claims of the '074 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas and the United States, including at least claim 1, without the consent or authorization of Unified Messaging, by or through their making, having made, offer for sale, sale, and/or use of the patented systems and methods for storing, delivering, and managing messages through operation of their respective web-based communications service(s), including webmail services, accessible via their respective website(s) and/or their respective messaging/mail/web server(s).

27. Unified Messaging has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count I. Defendants are, thus, liable to Unified Messaging in an amount that adequately compensates it for Defendants' infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT II

(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,836,141)

28. Unified Messaging incorporates paragraphs 1 through 22 herein by reference.

29. Unified Messaging is the exclusive licensee of the '141 patent, entitled "Systems and Methods for Storing, Delivering, and Managing Messages," with ownership of all substantial rights in the '141 patent, including the right exclude others and to enforce, sue and recover damages for past and future infringement. A true and correct copy of the '141 patent is attached as Exhibit B.

30. The '141 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

31. Defendants have directly infringed and continue to directly infringe one or more claims of the '141 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas and the United States, including at least claim 1, without the consent or authorization of Unified Messaging, by or through their making, having made, offer for sale, sale, and/or use of the patented systems and methods for storing, delivering, and managing messages through operation of their respective web-based communications service(s), including webmail services, accessible via their respective website(s) and/or their respective messaging/mail/web server(s).

32. Unified Messaging has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count II. Defendants are, thus, liable to Unified Messaging in an amount that adequately compensates it for Defendants' infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT III

(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,895,306)

33. Unified Messaging incorporates paragraphs 1 through 22 herein by reference.

34. Unified Messaging is the exclusive licensee of the '306 patent, entitled "Systems and Methods for Storing, Delivering, and Managing Messages," with ownership of all substantial rights in the '306 patent, including the right exclude others and to enforce, sue and recover damages for past and future infringement. A true and correct copy of the '306 patent is attached as Exhibit C.

35. The '306 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

36. Defendants have directly infringed and continue to directly infringe one or more claims of the '306 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas and the United States, including at least claim 1, without the consent or authorization of Unified Messaging, by or through their making, having made, offer for sale, sale, and/or use of the patented systems and methods for storing, delivering, and managing messages through operation of their respective web-based communications service(s), including webmail services, accessible via their respective website(s) and/or their respective messaging/mail/web server(s).

37. Unified Messaging has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count III. Defendants are, thus, liable to Unified Messaging in an amount that adequately compensates it for Defendants' infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT IV

(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,895,313)

38. Unified Messaging incorporates paragraphs 1 through 22 herein by reference.

39. Unified Messaging is the exclusive licensee of the '313 patent, entitled "Systems and Methods for Storing, Delivering, and Managing Messages," with ownership of all substantial rights in the '313 patent, including the right exclude others and to enforce, sue and recover damages for past and future infringement. A true and correct copy of the '313 patent is attached as Exhibit D.

40. The '313 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

41. Defendants have directly infringed and continue to directly infringe one or more claims of the '313 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas and the United States, including at least claim 12, without the consent or authorization of Unified Messaging, by or through their making, having made, offer for sale, sale, and/or use of the patented systems and methods for storing, delivering, and managing messages through operation of their respective web-based communications service(s), including webmail services, accessible via their respective website(s) and/or their respective messaging/mail/web server(s).

42. Unified Messaging has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count IV. Defendants are, thus, liable to Unified Messaging in an amount that adequately compensates it for Defendants' infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

COUNT V

(INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 7,934,148)

43. Unified Messaging incorporates paragraphs 1 through 22 herein by reference.

44. Unified Messaging is the exclusive licensee of the '148 patent, entitled "Systems and Methods for Storing, Delivering, and Managing Messages," with ownership of all substantial rights in the '148 patent, including the right exclude others and to enforce, sue and recover damages for past and future infringement. A true and correct copy of the '148 patent is attached as Exhibit E.

45. The '148 patent is valid, enforceable and was duly issued in full compliance with Title 35 of the United States Code.

46. Defendants have directly infringed and continue to directly infringe one or more claims of the '148 patent in this judicial district and elsewhere in Texas and the United States, including at least claim 1, without the consent or authorization of Unified Messaging, by or through their making, having made, offer for sale, sale, and/or use of the patented systems and methods for storing, delivering, and managing messages through operation of their respective web-based communications service(s), including webmail services, accessible via their respective website(s) and/or their respective messaging/mail/web server(s).

47. Unified Messaging has been damaged as a result of Defendants' infringing conduct described in this Count V. Defendants are, thus, liable to Unified Messaging in an amount that adequately compensates it for Defendants' infringements, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 U.S.C. § 284.
