JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14. This is an action for patent infringement arising under the provisions of the Patent Laws of the United States of America, Title 35, United States Code.

15. Subject-matter jurisdiction over Traffic's claims is conferred upon this Court by 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a).

16. On information and belief, each defendant has solicited business in the State of Texas, transacted business within the State of Texas and attempted to derive financial benefit from residents of the State of Texas, including benefits directly related to the instant patent infringement cause of action set forth herein.

17. On information and belief, each defendant has placed its allegedly infringing products and services into the stream of commerce throughout the United States with the expectation that they will be used by consumers in this judicial district, which products and services have been offered for sale, sold and used in Texas and/or this judicial district.

18. Each defendant is subject to personal jurisdiction in Texas and this judicial district, and is doing business in this judicial district.

19. Venue is proper in this judicial district under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(b) and (c) and 1400(b).

PATENT INFRINGEMENT

20. On August 31, 2004, U.S. Patent No. 6,785,606 (“the ‘606 patent”), entitled “System For Providing Traffic Information,” a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit A, was duly and legally issued. Traffic is the owner by assignment of all right, title and interest in and to the ‘606 patent, including the right to sue for and recover all past, present and future damages for infringement of the ‘606 patent.

21. Upon information and belief, each defendant, either alone or in conjunction with others, has in the past and continue to infringe, contribute to infringement, and/or induce infringement of the ‘606 patent by making, using, selling and/or offering to sell, and/or causing others to use, products and services, which in combination with other devices and systems, and in use, are covered by at least one claim of the ‘606 patent. Defendants are liable for infringement of the ‘606 patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

22. One or more of the defendants have committed acts of patent infringement in this district by offering to sell and selling products in this district which in use and in combination with other devices infringe one or more claims of the '606 patent.

23. Each defendant's acts of infringement have caused damage to Traffic, and Traffic is entitled to recover from each defendant the damages sustained by Traffic as a result of each defendant's wrongful acts in an amount subject to proof at trial.

24. Defendants Traffic.com, Navteq, XM Radio (and its related entities XM and XM Holdings), and Pioneer (through its related entity Pioneer Electronics of Canada, Inc.) were given actual notice and copies of the '606 patent on or about October 24, 2005.

25. Upon information and belief, the infringement of the '606 patent by Traffic.com, Navteq, XM, XM Radio, XM Holdings and Pioneer has been and continues to be willful and deliberate.

26. As a consequence of the infringement complained of herein, Traffic has been irreparably damaged to an extent not yet determined and will continue to be irreparably damaged by such acts in the future unless each defendant is enjoined by this Court from committing further acts of infringement.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Traffic prays for entry of judgment that:

- A. Each defendant has infringed the '606 patent;
- B. Each defendant account for and pay to Traffic all damages caused by its individual and/or joint infringement of the '606 patent in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 284;
- C. The infringement of the '606 patent by Traffic.com, Navteq, XM, XM Radio, XM Holdings and Pioneer has been willful and deliberate, that the Court increase the amount of damages as a result of the infringement by Traffic.com, Navteq, XM, XM Radio, XM Holdings and Pioneer to three times the amount found or assessed by the Court because of the willful and deliberate nature of the infringement, all in accordance with 35 U.S.C. § 284;

D. Traffic be granted permanent injunctive relief pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 283 enjoining each defendant, its officers, agents, servants, employees and those persons in active concert or participation with them from further acts of patent infringement;

E. Traffic be granted pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on the damages caused to it by reason of each defendant's patent infringement complained of herein;

F. Traffic be granted its reasonable attorneys' fees;

G. Costs be awarded to Traffic; and,

H. Traffic be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Traffic demands trial by jury on all claims and issues so triable.

Respectfully submitted,
