COUNT 1: INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 5,684,514

7. Patent Harbor refers to and incorporates all preceding paragraphs as though fully set forth herein.

8. United States Patent No. 5,684,514 (“the ‘514 Patent”), entitled “Apparatus and Method for Assembling Content Addressable Video” was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office on November 4, 1997, after full and fair examination. Patent Harbor is the assignee of all rights, title, and interest in and to the ‘514 Patent and possesses all rights of recovery under the '514 Patent, including the right to recover damages for past infringements. A true and correct copy of the '514 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

9. Upon information and belief, and upon representations to Patent Harbor by DreamWorks II Distribution Co., LLC (sued as DreamWorks Studios) and Miramax Film NY, LLC, sued as Miramax Films, named defendants in the currently pending lawsuit before this Court styled Patent Harbor, LLC v. DreamWorks Animation SKG, Inc. et al., civil action no. 6:11-cv-00229, Disney manufactures, uses, sells, offers to sell, authors, and/or distributes DVD and Blu-Ray discs containing movies, television shows or other forms of video entertainment produced by at least DreamWorks II Distribution Co., LLC and Miramax Film NY, LLC. In particular, DreamWorks II Distribution Co., LLC has represented that "DreamWorks DVDs and Blu-Ray discs are and, since January 12, 2009, have been distributed pursuant to contracts with...Walt Disney Studios Motion Pictures." Miramax has represented that, "To the extent that Miramax DVDs and Blu-Ray discs have been distributed in the United States pursuant to Miramax's authority since December 3, 2010, such DVDs and Blu-Ray discs have been distributed pursuant to contracts with Walt Disney Pictures..." Upon information and belief, Disney's authoring or manufacture of the DVD and Blu-Ray discs, including, but not limited to, exemplary movie I Am Number Four, with their content-addressing features (e.g. illustrated chapter/scene selection) along with the authoring equipment, and/or sale of the authored discs, on behalf of others and/or itself, infringe one or more claims of the '514 Patent. Upon information and belief, Disney either performs the authoring, manufacturing, and/or distribution or directs and controls the authoring, manufacturing, and/or distribution through contract.

10. Disney has actual notice of the '514 Patent at least as early as the filing of this Original Complaint.

11. Upon information and belief, Disney is infringing one or more claims, including at least claim 6 of the '514 Patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271 by performing, without authority, one or more of the following acts: (i) making, using, selling, offering to sell, authoring, and/or distributing within the United States the DVD and Blu-ray discs which infringe one or more claims of the '514 Patent; (ii) importing into the United States the DVD and Blu-ray discs which infringe one or more claims of the '514 Patent; and/or (iii) indirectly infringing one or more claims of the '514 Patent by means of jointly infringing, inducing infringement and/or contributing to infringement through directly contracting with and/or directing contractors to perform infringing acts of their behalf.

12. Patent Harbor has been damaged as a result of Disney's infringing conduct. Thus, Disney is liable to Patent Harbor in an amount that adequately compensates Patent Harbor for its infringement, which, by law, cannot be less than a reasonable royalty, together with interest and costs as fixed by this Court under 35 § U.S.C. 284.

13. Disney will continue to infringe the claims of the '514 Patent unless a post judgment royalty is awarded.

14. Patent Harbor is in compliance with the requirements of 35 U.S.C. § 287, to the extent applicable.

15. As a result of Disney's acts of infringement, Patent Harbor has suffered and will continue to suffer damages in an amount to be proved at trial.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

Patent Harbor prays for the following relief:

A. A judgment that Disney has infringed the '514 Patent as alleged herein, directly and/or indirectly by way of contributory infringement and/or inducing infringement of the '514 Patent, as alleged herein;

B. A judgment and order requiring Disney to pay Patent Harbor compensatory damages in an amount no less than a reasonable royalty under 35 U.S.C. § 284.

C. A judgment and order requiring Disney to pay Patent Harbor pre-judgment and post-judgment interest on the damages awarded;

D. A judgment and order that Disney pay Patent Harbor an on-going post-judgment royalty for future acts of infringement, at a rate to be determined by the jury or the Court; and

E. Any and all other relief as the Court deems just and equitable.

DEMAND FOR JURY TRIAL

Patent Harbor, LLC hereby demands that all issues be determined by a jury.

October 13, 2011

Respectfully submitted,
