COUNT I – INFRINGEMENT OF U.S. PATENT NO. 5,396,519

8. Telecomm repeats and realleges the allegations of paragraphs 1 through 7 as if fully set forth herein.

9. On March 7, 1995, U.S. Patent No. 5,396,519 ("the '519 Patent"), entitled "Method and Apparatus for Adaptively Providing Precoding and Preemphasis Conditioning to Signal Data for Transfer over a Communication Channel," was duly and legally issued by the United States Patent and Trademark Office. A true and correct copy of the '519 Patent is attached as Exhibit A.

11. Upon information and belief, Defendant is directly infringing one or more claims of the '519 Patent by making, selling, offering to sell, using, and/or providing and causing to be used automatic teller machines ("ATMs"), within this judicial district and elsewhere in the United States, including, on information and belief, ATMs that incorporate dial up modems or functionalities that perform the signal conditioning method claimed in the '519 patent (the "Accused Instrumentalities").

12. Defendant was made aware of the '519 patent and its infringement thereof upon the filing of this Complaint.

13. At least as of the filing of this Complaint, Defendant has, on information and belief, induced infringement of one or more claims of the '519 patent by, inter alia, making, selling, offering to sell, importing, and/or otherwise providing the Accused Instrumentalities for use by customers and others within this judicial district, and providing to those customers and others detailed explanations, instructions and information as to arrangements, applications and uses of the Accused Instrumentalities that promote and demonstrate how to use the Accused Instrumentalities in an infringing manner.

14. Upon information and belief, at least as of the filing of this Complaint, Defendant specifically intended to induce infringement by its customers and others by at least the acts set forth in paragraph 13, knowing that such acts would cause infringement and/or were willfully blind to the possibility that their inducing acts would cause infringement. Upon information and belief, Defendant's customers and others have infringed and are continuing to infringe the '519 patent.

15. Telecomm has been harmed by Defendant's infringing activities.

JURY DEMAND

Pursuant to Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, Telecomm demands a trial by jury on all issues triable as such.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Telecomm demands judgment for itself and against Defendant as follows:

- A. An adjudication that Defendant has infringed the '519 Patent;
- B. An award of damages to be paid by Defendant adequate to compensate Telecomm for its past infringement of the '519 Patent, and any continuing or future infringement through the date such judgment is entered, including interest, costs, expenses and an accounting of all infringing acts including, but not limited to, those acts not presented at trial;
- C. A declaration that this case is exceptional under 35 U.S.C. § 285, and an award of Plaintiff's reasonable attorneys' fees; and
