99. Neither 3form nor any authorized third party has licensed or otherwise authorized Defendant to practice the ’457 Patent.

100. Defendant, directly or through its subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, or groups, has infringed and continues to infringe the claim of the ’457 Patent by using, selling, and/or offering to sell, or inducing others to make, use, sell, and/or offer for sale, in the United States and this judicial district, products that are covered by at least claim 1 of the ’457 Patent, including but not limited to, those designated by the manufacturer, GlasPro, as “Naturals in Glass.” Therefore, Defendant is liable for infringement of the ’457 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

101. Defendant’s acts of infringement have caused damage to 3form, and 3form is entitled to recover from Defendant the actual damages sustained by 3form as a result of Defendant's wrongful acts in an amount subject to proof at trial pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284.

102. As a consequence of the infringement complained of herein, 3form has been irreparably damaged to an extent not yet determined, and will continue to be irreparably damaged by such acts in the future unless Defendant is enjoined by this Court from committing further acts of infringement of the '457 Patent.

FOURTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(By Plaintiffs for Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 5,958,539)

103. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate the allegations of the preceding paragraphs 1 through 11 of this Complaint into this Fourteenth Claim for Relief, as though fully set forth herein.

104. U.S. Patent No. 5,958,539 ("the '539 Patent") issued from the USPTO on September 28, 1999, bearing the title "Thermoplastic Article Having Textile Fabric Embedded Therein." (A true and correct copy of the '539 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit N and incorporated herein by this reference.)

105. Hunter Douglas is the owner by assignment of the '539 Patent.

106. 3form is an exclusive licensee of the '539 Patent, with the right to sue Defendant for and recover all past, present, and future damages for infringement of the '539 Patent, and to enjoin acts of infringement of the '539 Patent.

107. Neither Plaintiffs nor any authorized third party has licensed or otherwise authorized Defendant to practice the '539 Patent.

108. Defendant, directly or through its subsidiaries, divisions, affiliates, or groups, has infringed and continues to infringe the claim of the '539 Patent by using, selling, and/or offering to sell, or inducing others to make, use, sell, and/or offer for sale, in the United States and this judicial district, products that are covered by at least claim 1 of the '539 Patent, including but not limited to, those designated by the manufacturer, GlasPro, as "GlasPro-Rp Textiles in Resin." Therefore, Defendant is liable for infringement of the '539 Patent pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 271.

109. Defendant's acts of infringement have caused damage to 3form, and 3form is entitled to recover from Defendant the actual damages sustained by 3form as a result of Defendant's wrongful acts in an amount subject to proof at trial pursuant to 35 U.S.C. § 284.

110. As a consequence of the infringement complained of herein, 3form has been irreparably damaged to an extent not yet determined, and will continue to be irreparably damaged by such acts in the future unless Defendant is enjoined by this Court from committing further acts of infringement of the '539 Patent.

FIFTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(By 3form for Lanham Act Violation by Trademark Infringement)

111. 3form hereby incorporates the allegations of the preceding paragraphs 1 through 11 of this Complaint into this Fifteenth Claim for Relief as though fully set forth herein.

112. 3form has successfully designed and developed decorative architectural panels that 3form markets in connection with the federally registered trademark “CHROMA.” The distinctive three-dimensional appearance of 3form’s CHROMA® products have also obtained recognition, goodwill, and secondary meaning in the relevant marketplace, thereby affording 3form common law trademark protection in a three-dimensional trademark for its CHROMA® products (3form’s “3D Trademark”). 3form advertises, markets, and sells decorative architectural panels that include 3form’s 3D Trademark in interstate commerce throughout the United States. As a result of, among other things, 3form’s substantial investment in its 3D Trademark, and the products marketed and sold under that trademark, the consuming public recognizes the 3D Trademark and associates products and features with that mark with a single source, namely 3form.

113. Defendant advertises, markets, and sells decorative architectural panels that include 3form’s 3D Trademark in interstate commerce including but not limited to, those designated by the manufacturer, GlasPro, as “GlasPro-CS.” These acts by Defendant constitute a trademark infringement, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake and/or to deceive the relevant consuming public as to affiliation, connection, or association of Defendant’s products with 3form in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a). Because both Defendant and 3form advertise, market, and sell their respective decorative architectural panels in interstate commerce, Defendant’s infringement of 3form’s 3D Trademark will affect interstate commerce.

114. By reason of Defendant’s acts alleged herein, 3form has and will suffer damage to its business, reputation, and goodwill and the loss of sales and profits 3form would have made, but for Defendant’s acts.

SIXTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(By 3form for Common Law Trademark and Unfair Competition)

115. 3form hereby incorporates the allegations of the preceding paragraphs 1 through 11 and 112 through 114 of this Complaint into this Sixteenth Claim for Relief as though fully set forth herein.

116. Defendant, by its actions set forth hereinabove, has engaged in intentional business acts or practices that are unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent, including the infringement of 3form’s 3D trademark.

117. Defendant's unauthorized use of the 3D trademark, including but not limited to, those designated by the manufacturer, GlasPro, as "GlasPro-CS," is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source, origin, affiliation, connection, or association of Defendant's products with 3form, or as to the approval of Defendant's products by 3form.

118. By reason of the foregoing, 3form has suffered damages and irreparable harm.

119. By reason of the foregoing, 3form is entitled to at least damages from Defendant.

24. 3form be awarded its attorneys' fees, pursuant to all applicable law, including at least the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a);

25. 3form be awarded its costs of suit; and

26. Plaintiffs be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper under the circumstances.
