PARTIES

1. 3form is a Utah corporation with its principal place of business at 2300 South 2300 West, Salt Lake City, Utah 84119.

2. Hunter Douglas is a Swiss limited liability company with its principal place of business at Adligenswilerstrasse 37, 6006 Lucerne, Switzerland.

4. Defendant may be served through its designated agent for service of process, S. Joseph Green, at 9401 Ann Street, Santa Fe Springs, California 90670.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

5. This is a civil action for patent infringement brought by Plaintiffs for acts committed by Defendant arising under the patent laws of the United States, and more specifically under 35 U.S.C. §§ 271, 281, 283, 284, 285, and 289.

6. This also is a civil action for trademark infringement under Section 43 of the Lanham Act, Title 15 U.S.C. § 1125.

7. This is also a civil action for common law trademark infringement.

8. Jurisdiction of this Court is founded upon 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1338(a). This Court has related claim jurisdiction over the state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1338(b) and 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

9. In addition to the foregoing, this also is a civil action with complete diversity of citizenship between Plaintiffs and Defendant, with the amount in controversy exceeding $75,000. Thus, jurisdiction of this Court also is founded upon 28 U.S.C. § 1332.

10. ### BACKGROUND

12. 3form is a leading innovator and manufacturer of decorative architectural panels, and has spent considerable time and resources to protect its intellectual property rights for its innovative products and designs. 3form sells and distributes its decorative architectural panels through the United States.

13. 3form learned that Defendant intended to expand its product offerings to include decorative architectural panels, possibly with the assistance of a former 3form employee, and sent a letter to Defendant on March 15, 2011 addressing that issue (the “March 2011 letter”). (A true and correct copy of the March 2011 letter is attached hereto as Exhibit “A” and incorporated herein by this reference.)

14. In the March 2011 letter, 3form informed Defendant of various patents, trademarks, and copyrights that 3form has obtained to protect intellectual property rights for its decorative architectural panels. 3form also included with the March 2011 letter various exhibits that specifically identified 3form’s pertinent patents, trademarks, and copyrights.

15. Despite being thus informed of 3form's intellectual property rights for its decorative architectural panels, Defendant is now a direct competitor to 3form and has proceeded to willfully infringe 3form's intellectual property rights as more fully set forth below.

Therein.” (A true and correct copy of the ’539 Patent is attached hereto as Exhibit “O” and incorporated herein by this reference.)

FIFTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(By 3form for Lanham Act Violation by Trademark Infringement)

129. 3form hereby incorporates the allegations of the preceding paragraphs 1 through 15 of this Complaint into this Fifteenth Claim for Relief as though fully set forth hereat.

130. 3form has successfully designed and developed decorative architectural panels that 3form markets in connection with the federally registered trademark "CHROMA." The distinctive three-dimensional appearance of 3form's CHROMA® products have also obtained recognition, goodwill, and secondary meaning in the relevant marketplace, thereby affording 3form common law trademark protection in a three-dimensional trademark for its CHROMA® products (3form's "3D Trademark"). 3form advertises, markets, and sells decorative architectural panels that include 3form's 3D Trademark in interstate commerce throughout the United States. As a result of, among other things, 3form's substantial investment in its 3D Trademark, and the products marketed and sold under that trademark, the consuming public recognizes the 3D Trademark and associates products and features with that mark with a single source, namely 3form.

131. Defendant advertises, markets, and sells decorative architectural panels that include 3form's 3D Trademark in interstate commerce, including but not limited to, those designated by Defendant as "GlasPro-CS." These acts by Defendant constitute a trademark infringement, which is likely to cause confusion, mistake and/or to deceive the relevant consuming public as to affiliation, connection, or association of Defendant's products with 3form in violation of Section 43(a) of the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a). Because both Defendant and 3form advertise, market, and sell their respective decorative architectural panels in interstate commerce, Defendant's infringement of 3form's 3D Trademark will affect interstate commerce.

132. By reason of Defendant's acts alleged herein, 3form has and will suffer damage to its business, reputation, and goodwill and the loss of sales and profits 3form would have made, but for Defendant's acts.

SIXTEENTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF

(By 3form for Common Law Trademark and Unfair Competition)

133. 3form hereby incorporates the allegations of the preceding paragraphs 1 through 15 of this Complaint into this Sixteenth Claim for Relief as though fully set forth hereat.

134. Defendant, by its actions set forth hereinabove, has engaged in intentional business acts or practices that are unlawful, unfair, and/or fraudulent, including the infringement of 3form's 3D trademark.

135. Defendant's unauthorized use of the 3D trademark, including but not limited to the products it markets and sales under the name "GlasPro-CS," is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source, origin, affiliation, connection, or association of Defendant's products with 3form, or as to the approval of Defendant's products by 3form.

136. By reason of the foregoing, 3form has suffered damages and irreparable harm.

137. By reason of the foregoing, 3form is entitled to at least damages from Defendant.

23. For damages in an amount to be proven at trial for trademark infringement under the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1125(a);

25. An award of 3form's attorneys' fees, pursuant to all applicable law, including at least the Lanham Act, 15 U.S.C. § 1117(a);

26. Costs be awarded to Plaintiffs; and
