Count I: Patent Infringement of U.S. Patent No. 6,681,003

14. ZOLL incorporates by reference paragraphs 1-13 as if fully set forth herein.

15. On January 20, 2004, the United States Patent and Trademark Office (“USPTO”) duly and legally issued United States Patent No. 6,681,003 (“the ’003 patent”), entitled “Data Collection and System Management for Patient-Worn Medical Devices,” to the listed inventors Marshal Linder of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and Thomas Kaib of North Huntingdon, Pennsylvania. ZOLL is the owner by assignment of the ’003 patent. A true and correct copy of the ’003 patent is attached as Exhibit A.

16. Upon information and belief, Respiroics has infringed and continues to infringe one or more of at least claims 1,2, 4, 5, 8, 16, 19, and 20 of the ’003 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), (b), and/or (c), including but not limited to by making, using, offering for sale, selling, and/or importing the Accused Systems and Methods in the United States, and/or by contributing to and/or inducing such infringement of the ’003 patent.

17. Upon information and belief, Respiroics has knowingly encouraged and induced third parties through advertisements, instruction manuals, and other means to operate systems and methods, including but not limited to the Accused Systems and Methods, in a manner that infringes the ’003 patent, and third parties have so used such systems and methods.

18. Respiroics does not have a license or permission to use the ’003 patent.

19. As a result of Respiroics' infringement of the '003 patent, ZOLL has been irreparably injured. Unless such infringing acts are enjoined by this Court, ZOLL will continue to suffer additional irreparable injury.

20. As a result of Respiroics' infringement of the '003 patent, ZOLL has suffered, and continues to suffer, damages, in an amount not yet determined, of at least a reasonable royalty and/or lost profits due to loss of sales, profits, and potential sales that ZOLL would have made but for Respiroics' infringing acts.

21. ZOLL has complied with the statutory requirement of placing a notice of the '003 patent on all the applicable patient medical monitoring and treatment systems and methods that it manufactures and sells since at least June 2006, and thus Respiroics has been on notice of the '003 patent since at least June 2006.

22. Respiroics also has notice of the '003 patent and its infringing conduct as a consequence of this Complaint.

23. Upon information and belief, despite knowledge of the '003 patent, Respiroics will continue to infringe this patent with reckless disregard of the '003 patent, by continuing to infringe the patent when it knew or should have known that its actions constituted infringement of one or more valid claims of the '003 patent.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, ZOLL respectfully requests the following relief:

- a) a declaration that Respiroics infringes the '003 patent under 35 U.S.C. § 271(a), (b), and/or (c) and a final judgment incorporating the same;
- b) equitable relief under 35 U.S.C. § 283, including, but not limited to, an injunction that enjoins Respiroics and any of its officers, agents, employees, assigns, representatives, privies, successors, and those acting in concert or participation with them from infringing, contributing to, and/or inducing infringement of the '003 patent;

c) an accounting of all sales, rentals, or other disposition by Respironics of infringing systems and methods;

d) an award of damages sufficient to compensate ZOLL for infringement of the '003 patent by Respironics, together with prejudgment and post-judgment interest and costs under 35 U.S.C. § 284;

e) entry of an order compelling Respironics to compensate ZOLL for any ongoing and/or future infringement of the '003 patent, in an amount and under terms appropriate under the circumstances, including an accounting for acts of infringement not presented at trial and an award by the Court of additional damage for any such acts of infringement;

f) a declaration or order finding that Respironics' infringement is willful and/or an order increasing damages under 35 U.S.C. § 284;

g) a judgment holding that this is an exceptional case under 35 U.S.C. § 285 and awarding ZOLL its reasonable attorney fees, costs, and expenses; and

h) such other relief deemed just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Under Rule 38 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, ZOLL hereby demands trial by jury of all issues so triable by a jury in this action.
